

W. P. A. Child Welfare.

One of the most vitally necessary branches of the W.P.A. Child Welfare Scheme is a Children's Hospital, and for the present a temporary ward (which is to form a nucleus to a large endeavour in the near future) is being established at 54 LeMarchant Road, in the home of Mrs. F. Parsons, who realizing the scarcity of accommodation is renting a room to the W.P.A. for that purpose.

As only four or five small patients can be accommodated at one time, it is proposed to reserve the cots entirely for babies under one year suffering from non-infectious illnesses, such as conditions arising from wrong feeding, and needing scientific care for a few weeks.

The Ward will be in charge of a fully trained nurse to whom the mothers will look for kindly advice and help and their visits to the babies will provide valuable opportunities for simple object lessons, in the value of suitable food, clothing and fresh air, so that they may maintain the child's healthy condition when returned to them. Within two weeks of the suggestion of this temporary arrangement having been made, the "Little Hospital" as it has now come to be called has been fully equipped without a public appeal or drawing on the present low funds which the W.P.A. has collected for Child Welfare, and we feel sure when the public realize that the maintenance of the ward will be a considerable item, they will respond on Tag Day with their usual generosity. It is, of course, proposed to make a scale of charges, according to the means of those responsible for the little patients, but this will by no means cover the expenditure. Contributions to equip ward as follows:

Too Cautious.

"Oh, yes, sir, there's worse golf players in the world than you are, sir," the caddy said kindly. "Lots worse!" "Well, that makes me feel better," the dub responded. Then he swung his club, failed to touch the ball, but lifted a section of turf as large as a dinner-plate. "Yes, sir," the caddy continued, "there's certainly worse players, but they never let nobody catch 'em on the links."

It's most delicious. What? Pure Gold Chocolate Pudding. apr30,1m

Last night at headquarters the Colonel held a conference of officers in the mess at 8.30 o'clock. Secretary Phil B. Rendell, read the minutes of the last meeting, and all unfinished business was finalized. Mess President, Major Raley, M.C., was in the chair and conducted the business of the evening. Paymaster A. S. Lewis presented the annual accounts of the Brigade for the past year which were received and adopted. The annual statement of the Brigade Savings Bank was read and showed that department in a healthy condition. The election of Mess President resulted in the election of Major Williams for the ensuing year. The annual Indoor Sports of the Battalion arranged for next Thursday have been postponed to Wednesday, May 26th, instead, in order to allow Lt.-Col. R. F. Goodridge and staff to attend the social and concert in the Canon Wood Hall on Thursday evening, which the C.L.B. Ladies' Association are holding in aid of the C.L.B. Orphans' Co., of Shannon Munn farm. Many of the officers will also attend in full kit. The W. & N.C.O.'s are finalizing arrangements for their "Economy Dance" and supper in the C.L.B. Gymnasium on Monday, May 31st. It promises to be the best affair on record, and tickets will be limited. The ceremony of the presentation of the "Outerbridge Shield" will also take place in a few weeks. All ranks will be glad to know that the annual Camp at Topsail will be held this year as usual, and preliminary arrangements are well in hand. Outpost Companies will please take due notice and govern themselves accordingly, and make necessary arrangements to finance the transportation costs of their lads to the 1920 Topsail Camp.—Q.
