The Importation of Flour.

The Newfoundland Food Control Board announce that as the agreement made with the Canadian Wheat Board expired on August 31st, at which date also the Canadian Wheat Board went out of existence, PERMITS TO IMPORT FLOUR FROM ANY COUNTRY ARE NO LONGER NECESSARY.

The public may be interested in knowing that during the period of this agreement (January to August, 1920,) between the Food Control Board and the Canadian Wheat Board, Newfoundland shared with Canada and the West Indies the fortunate position in which she was getting all her flour fully $1.50 (one dollar and a half) per barrel cheaper than the United States or any other part of the World, making quite a large save to our people.

The agreement referred to above gave Newfoundland the privilege of importing White Flour (while Canada was using flour not so white), gave Newfoundland assurance of full supplies, and rescinded the tax of two dollars which had been placed on Flour exported from Canada.
