The Queen's Birthday in Guelph.
The fifty-fourth anniversary of the natal day of Her Most Graci ous Majasity Queen Victoria was ushered by the booming of twenty-one guns, which pated. The day was one of the most beautiful of the season, the excessive heat being somewhat tempered by a stift breeze from the west. This fact no doubt tended to bring into town may who were halting between two opinions. How ever that may be, the crowd was immense — a fact observable when they were gath reed together at the Regatts and Games. Flags were hoisted above the Town Hah and all the principal buildings in town not excepting the residence of Her Ma jesty's honorable tax-getherer, and alto-gether Gnelph assumed a very respec-table hohday dress. tches, and exhibited good line throw-t. The only real good hit was made Jackson of the Maple Leaf, on the enth innings, and securing three enn innings, and se es, but the advantage lified by a foul from H-owing is the
