THE LAST SAD RITES.

The remains of the late Norville Tully, who was drowned near Springbank, were interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The funeral was very largely attended. Rev. Dr. Daniels conducted the services, and the pallbearers included Wm. Clark, Harry Strong and John Shannon, the three fellow campers of deceased, and Harry Arnott, Fred Screaton and Eddie Burke. The floral offerings were very numerous and included designs from the choir of the Queen's Avenue Methodist Church, the London Amateur Dramatic Association, comrades, and from photographic friends. The mother of deceased took the sad event very much to heart, and while the body of her only child was in the house she absolutely refused to leave it.

CAUGHT IN TIME. But for the prompt work of the fire brigade the McClary Company would have had a very serious fire last night. The fire originated in the very center of the McClary block of buildings and with a fair start would have burned in every direction. The source of trouble was in the rear of a core furnace, where waste material, which had been allowed to collect at the rear, became ignited in consequence of the intense heat to which it had been subjected. The burning waste crept up the wooden partition to the roof, and the latter was all ablaze before being discovered. The fire was comparatively easy to reach and the flames which lent the appearance of a great deal larger conflagration quickly subsided. The loss will be about $300 and is covered by insurance. About 100 feet of the roof is destroyed, together with the ventilating shaft, and the partition back of the core furnace will require replacing.

ALLEN'S CONFESSION.

Tells What He Knows About Murderer Holmes.

The Castle Was a Death Trap-Holmes' Cool Confession

New York, Aug. 29.-A Herald special from Little Rock, Ark., says: J. C. Allen, alias Caldwell, the horse thief, nor serving a ten years' sentence in the penitentiary here, has made a state-ment to Warden Moore regarding his knowledge of H. H. Holmes and his operations. He absolutely denies hav-ing participated in any murders. Alen says that he last saw Minnie Williams at St. Joseph, Mo., where Holmes secured from her a deed of her property. He thinks she went to India, as he saw letters from her, and knows Holmes sent $1,600 to her

Referring to the "castle," Allen says: "It was used for a death trap, for I have as much money as Holmes thought, only $3,500.

"A bright little boy was enticed into the 'castle' during the fair and held in a room for five days for a reward for his recovery. No reward being offered they were afraid to turn him out, and the gas was turned into the room at night and he was suffocated.

"I was not in Chicago when Annie Williams was killed, but was at the 'castle' two or three days afterwards. Holmes and Quinlan coolly discussed the manner of her murder to me. Holmes' version was that she was knocked in the head with a stool by Minnie Williams, and then given some drug by Holmes to make her die easy The cause of her killing, as explained by Holmes, was that one of the girls must be put out of the way, and that he could manage Minnie easier than he could Annie.

"Minnie Williams was crazy in love with Holmes, and she was jealous of her sister, as Holmes was paying her some attention, too, and he took particular pains to increase her jealousy to work her up to the point of Killing

"The death trap in the 'castle' was made by Quinlan, who is a fine mason, and a negro, whose name I have forgotten. Quinlan is equaly guilty with Holmes in taking human life—Holmes doing the planning and Quinlan the execution, Quinlan's wife knowing all of their work of this kind."

WHERE IS KENNEDY?

A London Man Supposed to Have Been Killed

By Falling Off a Northwest Excursion Train-an Anxious Wife.

Mrs. Kennedy, who up to yesterday lived on Bridge street, near Clark's bridge, but who has since moved to Simcoe street, is in a very uncertain and painful condition of mind at the present time. She thinks it possible that she may be a widow because of a certain telegraphic dispatch from the Northwest, and pending corroboration or denial she is in a very nervous state. A couple of days ago a statement was telegraphed from some point on the C. P. R. that a man named Kennedy had fallen off a harvest excursion train and been killed. There were no further particulars. Nothing was sad as to where it happened or where the man came from. The information was most vague. Mrs. Kennedy had not heard from her husband since the harvest excursions left these parts, though she was not certain that he had gone with them. Inquiry at the C. P. R. ticket office revealed the fact that a man named Kennedy had left this city with the con-tingent of harvesters, and Mrs. Kennedy became very much alarmed. trace of the accident.

LAURIER IN THE EAST.

The Liberal Leader on the Westmoreland Election.

Enthusiastic Demonstration Held in Dalhousie, N. B.

Dalhousie, N. B., Aug. 29.-The Liberal demonstraton held here this week in honor of the visit of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was a great success. During the day the town had been decorated with flags, and an arch with the motto "Welcome, Laurier." had been erected over the entrance to the court house grounds, where the meeting had been announced to be held.

On the arrival of the steamer Admiral Mr. Laurier, who was accompanied by his wife, was met at the wharf by a delegation representing the Lberal organization of the county, and was driven in an open carriage through the principal streets of the town. Long before 8 o'clock, the hour for which the public meeting was called, the court house was packed to the doors. The audience included a large number of ladies, for whom seats had been reserved on the platform. Mr. Laurier upon his entrance was received with hearty cheers. The chair was taken by Geo. Haddow, ex-M.P. J. C. Barberic read an address of welcome. Mr Laurier, in replying, began by expressing his gratification at the some what unexpected opportunity which had been afforded him of addressing a Restigouche audience He made a happy reference to the Westmoreland election just held, in which the Conservative majority in the last election had been reduced to one-third, and showed that anything like a similar reduction in other constituencies in case of a general election would place the Conservative party in a hopeless minority. Mr. Laurier then entered upon a statement of the principles of the Liberal party. He declared boldly for a tariff whose aim and effect should be the raising of revenue for the country's needs, and not for the protection of selected industries and the fostering of monopolies. He showed the injurious effects of the present system by a detailed reference to the iron duties. He also declared that if the Liberal party attained to power they would make an honest effort to obtain a treaty of reciprocity with the United States, including, if necessary, not only natural products, but a list of manufactured arti-He also showed what enormous benefit this would be to those engaged in farming and all the other industries (manufacturing and general) which this country can support. He next referred to the Manitoba school question, pointing out the general lines upon rhich such a problem must be solvednot by an evasion of political responsibility, but by an impartial inquiry into the facts, and a consideration of the merits of the case upon which the minority base their appeal; such inquiry

FIFTEIN MOTORS

Running Schedule Arranged for the Electric Road Fair Traffic.

Over Thirty Trains an Hour-A Surplus of Old Cedar Blecks - Stone Crusher at Work Again.

Manager Carr, of the street railway company, has just returned from St. Catharnes and Toronto, where he had been making arrangements for the shipment of motor cars for the Western Fair traffic

The company have four motors now in course of mounting and wiring at their shops in the East End, and eleven more are under contract to be here by Fair time. Six of these are already completed in Toronto. This will make fifteen all told to run between the Tecumseh House and the exhibition grounds. The bylaw states that no more than three cars shall be coupled together, so that the company will have to be content with two trailers to each motor, although Mr. Carr would like to run an additional car with each train. The service will be slightly less than two minutes, which is equal to over 100 single car trips to the hour. An expert wirer arrived from Toronto today to take charge of the construction of the cars. The work is still de-layed for lack of rails, although it was reported yesterday that they had arrived. Although the time is so short, Mr. Carr is confident that the work will be done in time. "We will work day and night if necessary," he said. The contractors for the alteration of the York street bridge were expected to arrive and commence work this morning, and Engineer Graydon had the hand railing removed for them, but they did not show up. Mr. Carr is about to close another contract for the necessary alterations on Victoria bridge at Ridout street. The city's storage yard has become filled up with cedar blocks which have been removed from the street, and teamsters are now dumping them on the river bank at the foot of Carling street. Whether they will ever be used by the city is doubtful. To begin with the great majority of the blocks are absolutely useless for purposes of paving, and again a number of London's poorer class have begun this early to lay in winter fire wood.

The Barber Company's stone crusher was at work again today, and the concrete foundation had been laid as far as King on the east side of Richmond by noon. A large crowd still continues to watch the operations.

A CANADIAN CAPITALIST DEAD.

THE CHATHAM MYSTERY.

Detective Murray Finds No Clue-Whose Bones Are They? Chatham, Aug. 29.-The discovery of human remains in a heap of ashes in the woods of Charles Heward, near Merlin and Port Alma, on July 9, threw the countryside into a state of excitement, for it was suggestive of murder. Mr. Heward, who made the ghastly find, notified Dr. Oliver, of Merlin, who communicated the facts to County Crown Attorney Douglas and Coroner Bray, of this place. An inquest was held, and a most diligent inquiry was made into the strange circumstances of the case, but the mystery was too deep to be fathomed in this way. Dr. Bray, after listening to all the available evidence, presented to the county attorney a statement setting forth the reason for his belief that a foul murder had been committed and suggesting that the Attorney-General's department be requested to assign a detective to the case. The result was that Detective John Murray was detailed to investigate. Yesterday ne visited Merlin and made inquiries of the residents, without, however, finding any solution of the mystery. Two men have disappeared from the neighborhood during the past year, but it is quite improbable that either of them came to his death in the bush where the charred remains were found. Early in the spring a laborer named Joe Walker left Merlin village, saying he was going to Wheatley to get work. He has not been seen since. Another man who disappeared at about the same time was John Rollet, an aged and well known resident. But the clothing and pipe found near the body, it is said, never were the property of the missing men. Detective Murray will resume the investigation at a future time.
