PROPOSED GREAT IRISH CONVENTION.

Archbishop Walsh, of Toronto, has written an important letter to Hon. Edward Blake, M.P., in which he expresses regret that the member for South Longford was unable, by reason of his health, to accept a reception at the hands of his admirers in Canada, and adds:

"If I mention, in passing the enormous sacrifices you have made, it is not on your account, but for the sake of good and true men at home, who might be led astray, in your regard, by false statements and misrepresentations. Here in Canada, where you were bred, born and reared, and where you are well known both as to your private and public life, you need no certificate of character from any individual or from any body of citizens for you possess in an eminent degree the esteem, admiration and confidence of your countrymen. In saying this I am sure that I voice the public opinion of Canada."

The necessity for unity among Irishmen, if Home Rule is to triumph, is also emphasized by the Archbishop, who makes this proposition:

"Let a great national convention be held in Dublin, composed of chosen representatives of the clergy and people of Ireland, and of an advisory representation of the Irish race abroad. In that convention let Ireland speak out her mind. Let not her voice be like a broken musical instrument, emitting discordant notes and jarring sounds, but let it, on the contrary, be clear, loud and emphatic, insisting on unity and condemning faction. Let her not only uphold the Parliamentary representatives whose methods and conduct she approves, and let her mark out and condemn those whose intolerance of control, personal jealousies and animosities have done so much to break the unity and waste the strength of the National party. Dissensions and feuds have in the past been the ruin and curse of Ireland. Let her stamp them out and cast them from her as things more noxious than the serpents St. Patrick banished from her shores. In that convention let the voice of Ireland's sons abroad be heard and their advice considered."

Mr. Blake, in reply to the Archbishop, thanks him for his kindly personal references, agrees with him that unity of aim is the chief thing necessary to the success of Irish aspirations, and indorses the view that a great national convention, such as he suggests, would powerfully stimulate the movement for Irish self-government.

A SLAP IN THE FACE. London, Oct. 17.—The Chronicle, commenting upon the final demands of the powers for Armenian reforms, in which the demand for a Christian high commissioner was dropped, says: "We have had a slap in the face that high-spirited people ought not to tolerate. We have to thank the weak-kneed champion of Toryism. We need never trust Lord Salisbury to play the part of a strong man again."

London, Oct. 17.—The representative of the Associated Press in this city has obtained from the best source the following statement as to the state of the Venezuelan question: "The United States ambassador, the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, presented a long note to the Marquis of Salisbury on the Venezuelan question some weeks ago, stating in full the views of the United States Government, and the rules and policy by which they are guided on such questions arising between a European Government and an American Republic. Up to the present no reply has been given, and as the question is of such great importance and wide application, the matter will engage the serious attention of the British Government for some time."

SALMON OR TROUT? London, Oct. 17.—The secretary of the Fishmongers' Company confirms the report of the stoppage of the sale of Canadian salmon, a large quantity of which arrived here on Oct. 10. He says he has no doubt that the sample sent by the company's experts, about four hundredweight, that it is what is called "bull trout," and it is assumed that the balance of the consignment is the same. He adds, however, that if it can be proved that it is salmon, the Fishmongers' Company will not desire to hinder the trade, and he claims they are simply upholding the act of Parliament which prohibits the sale of trout at the present time of the year. The consignees of the Canadian salmon have agreed to hold it over pending the investigation into the affair which is being made by experts.

ing complications, deprecates such a Cretan movement, but the situation is perilous.

Berlin, Oct. 17.—Advices received from Constantinople state that the most serious consequences are feared from the general situation growing out of the revived Armenian agitation and the resumption of rioting. According to these dispatches the intervention of the powers to restore order and enforce reform is imminent.

BIG PILE OF SILVER STOLEN. London, Oct. 17.—One of the managers of Elkington & Co., the well-known silversmiths of Regent street, Cheapside, Hyddleton street, and Calcutta, who claim the distinction of being silversmiths "by special appointment to her Majesty the Queen, H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, the Emperor of Austria, and H. M. the King of the Belgians," has been arrested in connection with the robbery of 31 ingots of silver, valued at about $25,000, in transit over the Midland Railway Company. The silver was stolen on broad daylight on Sept. 25 last from Ossulston street, Somerton, London, with a horse and wagon in which the bullion was being conveyed from the Midland railway station to Messrs. Sharps & Wilkins, of Great Winchester street, this city. The firm of Elkington & Co. is much patronized by Americans who visit London. The prisoner is the manager of the branch office in this city, and it is understood that some of the stolen ingots have been found on the premises.
