WILL MAKE NO CHANGE

Duties of Kindergarten Teachers Not To Be Interfered With.

Trustee MacRobert Met With a Couple of Setbacks—A Lively Discussion.

Trustee MacRobert was turned down severely last night on his kindergarten scheme by his conferees on No. 1 committee, and afterwards at odd moments there were glimmers of lightning in the room's pellucid air. He was wrothy at the treatment accorded him, and did not conceal it, although the stand taken was perceptibly the only justifiable one. It was this way: Mr. MacRobert's motion was to have a reconsideration of Inspector Carson's report referring to the kindergarten system, the report specifically was to be reconsidered. This report was made in 1924, and in it Mr. Carson recommended that the kindergarten pupils should go to school at 9:30 o'clock, stop at 12 o'clock, resume work in the afternoon and be dismissed at 3 o'clock. It also recommended that certain advanced studies, such as sand-writing, phonetics, reading, tracing, pen and ink writing and number work, be included in the kindergarten work. In the first place, Mr. MacRobert moved that the hours 9:30 o'clock and 3 o'clock be changed to 9 and 4 o'clock, respectively, after having moved the reconsideration of the inspector's original report. It was manifestly a wrong proceeding to reconsider the amended report, and Chairman Macpherson ruled Mr. MacRobert's motion out of order. Of course he did not like it, but he had to submit to the inevitable. Matters then continued until many minutes past 9 o'clock, in a slightly indecorous manner—indecorous, at least, when the usually staid behavior of the trustees is considered. It was apparent by this time that circumstances were not propitious for the fourthwarder's scheme, but undeterred, he essayed the second clause in the report, and moved that the subjects mentioned be inserted in the kindergarten curriculum. He was again defeated.

Then, in order that the whole report might be placed before the committee for discussion, Trustee Bayly moved its adoption.

Trustee Teasdale wished to know what effect this would have. Would it do away with the kindergarten?

Miss McKenzie, supervisor of kindergartens, replied in the affirmative.

Trustee Morgan, who, by the way, was Mr. MacRobert's only supporter, desired to know the effect that the introduction of the above-mentioned subjects would have upon the time each teacher would during the day.

Miss McKenzie said four or five afternoons each week were occupied in lectures to the student-teachers, in preparing work, and in attending meetings, as ordered by the bylaw.

Trustee MacRobert asked Miss McKenzie if in Hamilton the system was so arranged that the director in the forenoon became the assistant director in the afternoon, and vice-versa, thus permitting of a full day's teaching.

The reply was that it was so, and the effect of this scheme was that the kindergartens were rated as poor by the government inspector.

Then followed discussion, ad infinitum. Trustee MacRobert contended that the cost per pupil should be gauged by the cost of the average attendance. Trustee Bayly considering this as unreasonable, because, while there might be an average attendance of some 300 odd, the board had to provide for the full number of 1,100 odd pupils on the roll. The result of the whole matter was that the motion was lost. Therefore, no change will be made for the present, at least. There is a possibility of Mr. MacRobert making a second motion, couched in broader terms.

FAMOUS RUGBY INN DESTROYED.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 12.—Rugby Inn, instituted at Rugby, Tenn., on the Cumberland Plateau, was burned this morning. Rugby is the English colony established at that point in the 1850's, and of which Thomas Hughes, the English philanthropist and author, was the founder and promoter.

SIX INCHES OF SNOW.

Detroit, April 12.—The novelty of a heavy snowstorm in the middle of April furnished a choice topic for the "oldest inhabitants" of various parts of the state last night. Several inches fell at Battle Creek, Benton Harbor, Kalamazoo, Greenville, Standish, and scores of other points. At Three Rivers the storm commenced at noon, and by night six inches of heavy, wet snow had fallen, followed by light rain, with slightly colder this morning.

COLLAPSED!

Wreck of a Big Four-Story Building in Pittsburg.

Three Dead Bodies Taken From the Ruins—A Number of Persons Injured.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 12.—The big, double-front, four story building at the corner of Woods street and Second avenue, occupied by the Armstrong-McKelvey Lead and Oil Company, collapsed today, burying a number of employees, customers and carpenters at work on the building, beneath the ruins. The disaster involved the entire front of the building, but fortunately the greater number of imprisoned employees were in the rear of the building and escaped with slight injuries or none at all. It is certain that two clerks were caught in the wreck, and at least two customers were also imprisoned. In addition, five carpenters were at work remodeling the interior of the store-rooms and of these but one has been accounted for. He is Harry Bowles, and was working in the office in the rear of the building. He made a thrilling escape through a window with Miss Annie Stewart, the stenographer for the company, in his arms.

Only one dead body and three injured persons have so far been taken from the ruins. The dead body was identified as that of Oscar Bigel, a carpenter.

Eugene C. Bernhardt, a salesman, is known to be in the wreck, and is supposed to be dead.

The injured recovered are: Noel Casper, injured internally; Michael Shang, leg broken and injured internally; unconscious and in a serious condition.

The cause of the accident is ascribed to the weakening of the building by the removal of a partition separating the room formerly occupied by the company from one which had just been leased.

At 2 o'clock the bodies of a man and a woman were found. They have not yet been identified.

JOINED TO HER JEHU

Holland Heiress Elopes to Wisconsin With Her Coachman.

New York, April 12.—A dispatch from Appleton, Wis., gives this bit of romance from real life: Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Schoenmacher, an eloping husband and her coachman husband, arrived here today from Amsterdam, Holland, and joined relatives on a farm near here. They brought with them a dozen trunks containing clothes and personal effects, besides a bride and her belongings belonging to the bride's family.

The bride, Maria Aaltz, is a daughter of the late Professor Aaltz, teacher of languages in the University of Amsterdam, who died recently, leaving her a comfortable fortune. After her father's death Maria went to live with her brother, Capt. Aaltz, a surgeon in the royal navy of Holland. Schoenmacher, who had been in the service of her father, was employed by the son. Heiress and her coachman fell in love, fled to Rotterdam and from there sailed for America, arriving in New York April 2. They were married at Hoboken.

Schoenmacher is 27 years of age and his wife 28. The bride speaks several languages, and is refined. It is the intention of the couple to live here until the husband acquires a working knowledge of the English language, when the wife will establish him in business.

ROPE SKIPPING.

Little Illinois Girl Killed Herself by Exciting Play.

Belleville, Ill., April 12.—A skipping-rope contest was caused by the death of 11-year-old Freda Poigne and occasioned the serious illness of two other children. There was great rivalry among the three children and others of the school they attended as to who could jump the rope the most. One could jump the rope a record of 150 times without rest, and her companions attempted to beat this record. This feat excited Freda, who had been the champion up to that time, and when she entered the ring to beat the record of the new-comer quite a crowd gathered and applauded her efforts. With flushed face and flashing eyes she passed the 150 mark and kept right on till 200 jumps had been made, when she staggered from the ring and was led home dizzy by her companions. She became ill and died yesterday. The attending physician said the cause of death was heart disease, caused by too violent exercise.

GLANWORTH

Glanworth, April 12.—The Rev. Kenneth McLennan, B.A., of Tiverton, filled the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church on Sunday with great acceptance.

Malcolm Buchanan had the misfortune to sustain a severe contusion of one of his legs recently. Dr. Nichol was in attendance.

Miss Bella Trigger, who had contracted typhoid fever while undergoing a course as a trained nurse, has had a relapse and is in a critical condition.

The condition of James Currie is not so favorable as it was.

John W. Laidlaw and his bride were married on Sunday in St. Andrew's Church.

WILTON GROVE.

Wilton Grove, April 12.—Arthur Baty, of Lobo, has purchased the property of Elder Thomas Baty, comprising 100 acres, for $7,500, with a reservation of orchard for three years.

Rev. Kenneth McLennan, of Tiverton, occupied the pulpit of the North Westminster Presbyterian Church on Sabbath acceptably. He gave a lecture on Monday evening following anent the habits and customs of the people of Honan.

Elder Thomas Nichol has bought five acres of land from Rev. E. H. Sawers, of Brucefield, adjacent to the Presbyterian Church here, for $500.

Mr. Laidlaw and his bride, having returned from their wedding tour, were "kirked" last Sunday.

John C. Nichol is now choirmaster of the North Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Mr. John McDougall, James Anderson and James Beattie were presented with a beautiful copy of the Bible each as souvenirs by the session of the North Westminster Presbyterian Church, in recognition of their valuable services rendered to the church, the former as organist, and the latter as leaders of the choir.

Mrs. Charles Sumner has been appointed organist, and Miss Mary Nichol assistant organist.

Mrs. David Beattie is seriously ill.

Mrs. Andrew Beattie is sinking very fast.

Mr. Lindsay, of London, has leased the 70-acre farm of William Henry, for two years, at the nominal sum of $100 per annum, including taxes and road work.

John Kerr is ill with pulmonary trouble.

BRYANSTON.

Bryanston, April 12.—Little May Burnett, who died so suddenly last Sunday evening, was buried on 10. Tuesday, Rev. Mr. Noble conducting the services. Her mother has the heartfelt sympathy of the community in this her sad bereavement.

Rev. Mr. Stewart, Moderator of the London Presbytery, will preach in the Presbyterian Church here on April 15 at 2:30 p.m.

Walter Needham has bought Charles Bayfield's driving buggy.

The stave mill has started for the season, with Fred Hessel as foreman.

church was crowded. After the large number present had partaken of the excellent viands for which the Lambeth ladies are so deservedly popular, an excellent programme was carried out, with Rev. J. S. Fisher in the chair. Miss Hance, of London, sang several solos with great acceptance, as did also Rev. E. Milson. Miss Law, of Littlewood, gave a couple of recitations in a very pleasing manner. Rev. T. Wesley Cosens, of the Westminster circuit, gave a very excellent address, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the intelligent and appreciative audience present. The proceeds, amounting to $70, will be applied to the new church building fund.

EGMONDVILLE.

Edmondville, April 12.—Our township fathers deserve the thanks of pedestrians for prohibiting the use of the wheel on our sidewalks. The aged were especially in danger, and they mean to see that the law is enforced.

The woolen mill property will be auctioned off on Saturday. Two fine brick residences, the large warehouse and the mill will all come under the hammer. Our people hope to see it in operation soon.

Mr. Knight, of Melrose, is spending some days with his mother, Mrs. R. Stewart, who has been ill for some time.

Mr. W. C. Clark's sale on Saturday last was not largely attended, and as a result things went at low prices. The real estate was not sold, as the reserve bid was not reached. Mr. Clark, however, is anxious to sell, and hopes soon to find a purchaser.

Mr. Joseph Collier, who spent the winter in Michigan with relatives, has returned home, and has since gone to the Stratford Business College. Mr. John Hawthorn, of this village, has also begun to take a course in the same institution. They are both good steady young men, and will not be likely to fool away their time, as many do at such places.

Mr. R. Hills has purchased the park lot lying between his property and the school ground. He was compelled to do it to prevent a nuisance being created alongside his property in the shape of a public recreation ground.

Mr. Thomas Hills has secured the services of Mr. John Smith, of Seaford, as carriage-maker, to fill Mr. Stevenson's place. He is a veteran at the business.

Miss A. Kennedy has not made any advance in her recovery, but she is hoped on the approach of milder weather.

Baby's Face a Mass of Scabs

After Two Doctors Had Failed the Eczema Was Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Some cures brought about by Dr. Chase's Ointment are almost too wonderful for one to believe, who has not been an eye-witness. Hosts of babies have been saved from the intense sufferings of eczema by this great standard ointment. As in the case described here, the skin is always left perfectly smooth and natural.

Seaford, Ont., states: "My son, Arnold, at the age of three months, was taken with a severe form of eczema on the face, and though we had two doctors treating him they could do him no good. His face was a mass of scabs, and would fester when he scratched. In spite of all that we could do he got worse, and it was terrible to see the way he suffered."

"Hearing of Dr. Chase's Ointment, we got a box from our druggist, and began using it. The first box did him much good, and won our confidence, and by the time we had used two boxes more his face was as well as any child's, and he was entirely cured. He was nine months old when cured. He is fourteen now, and his skin is perfectly clear and natural."

Dr. Chase's Ointment never fails to cure eczema, salt rheum and other itching skin diseases. Mothers, who know its virtue would not think of being without it in the house. For itching of the skin and piles it is the only guaranteed cure. 50 cents a box; at dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A DINNER PILL—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healing nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions, and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion.
