

How is Your Digestion?

Is Your Stomach Weak, Inactive and Unable to Properly Digest Food? Does it Subject You to Inconvenience and Distress by Day and Disturb Your Rest by Night? Does Indigestion Acquaint You with the Horrors of Insomnia or the Dreadful Caprices of Nightmare?

If so, you can be relieved and cured. Dyspepsia has no terrors for those who are familiar with the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They can bid defiance to indigestion. A "Square Meal" can be made to give rise to a sensation of satisfaction and comfort, and sleep rendered sweet and restful after a hearty repast. Mr. Thomas Seal, Mayfield, Cal., says: "Have used and recommended Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets because there is nothing like them to keep the stomach right."

Miss Lella Dively, 182 Plummer street, Pittsburg, writes: "I wish everyone to know how grateful I am for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I suffered for a long time, and did not know what ailed me. I lost flesh right along, until one day I noticed an advertisement of these tablets, and immediately bought a 50 cent box at the drug store. I am gaining in flesh and color. I have at last found something that has reached my ailment."

From Mrs. Del. Edred, Sun Prairie, Wis.: "I was taken dizzy very suddenly during the hot weather of the past summer. After ten days of constant dizziness I went to our local physician, who said my liver was out of order and I had over-heated my blood; he doctor me for two weeks without much improvement; I finally thought of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets (which I had used long before for various bad feelings), and the first three tablets helped me. They are easily the best all-around family medicine I ever used."

Mrs. G. H. Crotley, 538 Washington street, Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My 3-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy, and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie county, N. Y., and made the following affidavit: "Gentlemen—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my 2-months-old baby, which was sick and puny, and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart's Tablets, and I procured a box from my druggist, and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box, and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life. MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE."

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of April, 1907. HENRY KARIS, Notary Public in and for Erie county, N. Y."

Rev. J. R. Hoag, of Wynora, Nebraska, writes: "For six years I have been troubled with dyspepsia. Last fall I became very much alarmed at some symptoms of heart trouble, and came to believe there was a sympathetic relation between the two diseases, or, rather, that the stomach trouble was the cause of the heart disturbance. I hit upon Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for a remedy, and invested a dollar and a half for three boxes. I have now taken them for three months, and I can eat any kind of food I want and have a good, vigorous appetite. Although I am 77 years old, I now feel perfectly well, and without being requested by anyone to make this statement as a compliment to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

Mrs. Lydia Bartram, of Assaria, Mich., writes: "I have suffered from stomach trouble for ten years, and five different doctors gave me only temporary relief. Mr. E. R. Page advised me to try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and four boxes did me more permanent benefit than all the doctors' medicines that I have ever taken."

Mrs. J. K. Knowlton, of Butte, Montana, is a most enthusiastic convert to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets as a cure for chronic stomach trouble. She says: "I had poor digestion nearly all my life. It now seems to me that for years I never knew what it was to be hungry, to have a good, natural appetite. I was troubled with gas in stomach, causing pressure on the heart, with palpitation and short breath. Nearly everything I ate soured on my stomach, sometimes I had cramps in the stomach, which almost resembled spasms. Doctors told me I had catarrh of the stomach, but their medicines would not reach it, and I would still be a sufferer had I not, in sheer desperation, decided to try Stuart's Tablets. I knew they were an advertised remedy, and I didn't believe anything I read about them. I had no confidence in advertised remedies, but my sister living in Pittsburg wrote me last spring telling me how Stuart's Tablets had cured her and her little daughter of indigestion and loss of flesh and appetite, and I hesitated no longer. I bought a 50 cent box at the drug store, and took two of the large tablets after each meal, and found them delightful to take, being as pleasant to the taste as caramel candy. Whenever I had no confidence in advertised remedies, I bought a 50 cent box at the drug store, and took two of the large tablets after each meal, and found them delightful to take, being as pleasant to the taste as caramel candy. Whenever I had no confidence in advertised remedies, I bought a 50 cent box at the drug store, and took two of the large tablets after each meal, and found them delightful to take, being as pleasant to the taste as caramel candy."

Mr. E. H. Davis, of Hampton, Va., says: "I doctored five years for dyspepsia, but in two months I got more benefit from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets than in five years of doctor's treatment. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain no opiates, cocaine or any narcotic, and no other injurious drugs, simply the natural peptones and digestives which every weak stomach lacks."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be bought at any drug store for 50 cents a box. The F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., publish a book about dyspepsia, which they will send you, free and prepaid, if you will write and request it. A postal card will bring it.

lasted from 2 till 5 o'clock, beneficial speeches and music formed the programme. In the evening the time was spent in about the same manner. Mr. Gorton, Mr. Glendinning and Mr. Adam Robson, of Vanneck, spoke on "The Farm as a Home." Miss Madock concluded, Mr. Harding gave a few records on a gramophone, after which Mr. Glendinning spoke on the importance of having good well water. The audience then, after singing the National Anthem, dispersed.

YOUNG ROOSEVELT IMPROVING. Groton, Mass., Feb. 17.—Late reports from the sick rooms of the three Groton school students are most favorable. Mrs. Roosevelt stated late Saturday afternoon that her son was doing splendidly. The Potter and Gammell lads are also gaining. Should no complications arise it is Mrs. Roosevelt's belief that she will be able to take her son to Washington some time this week. Miss Alice Roosevelt arrived at Groton Saturday.

VICTIM OF SMALLPOX

Mrs. W. D. Kilpatrick, of Washington, Caught the Disease From Her Baby.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Mrs. W. D. Kilpatrick, who ten days ago insisted in going to the Washington pest house with her baby, sick with the smallpox, has herself been stricken with the disease. She was vaccinated on both arms after reaching the pest house, and both operations worked so well that smallpox experts do not believe her case will be severe. Ever since going to the pest house she has insisted on caring for her sick baby, and sleeping with it instead of leaving it to a nurse.

IMMUNES. During the past year not a single case of smallpox has occurred among the staff of the London smallpox hospitals, indicating that careful revaccination is an absolute safeguard against that disease.

THE ONTARIO SITUATION. Toronto, Feb. 15.—The provincial health officer yesterday received reports of another case of smallpox in Elgin township, one at Smith's Falls, one at Bathurst township and one at Crediton, and one at South Placentia. The latter is now free of the disease. The scarlet fever outbreak at Regan's Camp, in the Parry Sound district, has been checked, and conditions there are satisfactory.

IN LUMBER CAMPS. Toronto, Feb. 15.—Nine cases of smallpox were reported to Dr. Bryce today from one of Hall's lumber camps, near Nain Center, in the Parry Sound district. The 20-month child is among those down with the disease. Three new cases were also reported from the provincial board of health from a lumber camp in Cooper township, Parry Sound.

Rochford Connolly, aged 9 years, son of W. L. Connolly, accountant of the Bank of Toronto, Brockville, Ont., has smallpox of a mild type. He was placed in the isolation hospital. Miss Toller, of Ottawa, has nearly recovered from smallpox.

BOATS STOPPED BY QUARANTINE OF SARNIA.

Port Huron, Mich., Feb. 17.—The Port Huron and Sarnia ferry line on Saturday suspended the operation of its boats between this city and Sarnia, and they will not again be put on the line until after the lifting of the border quarantine. The running of the boats for immune persons only has not been profitable, and it was decided to make the quarantine more fully effective. It is thought that the remonstrances against this action will become so loud that the quarantine will have to be lifted after a few days, inasmuch as the appeared necessary for the quarantine has passed, all the alleged cases of smallpox at Sarnia having been isolated, and no further cases having developed.

Sarnia Observer: The quarantine line between this city and Sarnia, Mich., to prevent the spread of smallpox from Port Huron and Michigan is being rigidly enforced at the ferry wharf. Strict precaution is being taken, and everyone who boards the boat is warned that unless he has been vaccinated recently he will have to pass through the ordeal on the boat before he can land. Dr. Henderson, of Sarnia, and Dr. Henderson, of Port Huron, are on the boat, and it is estimated that about fifty people have been vaccinated. When the situation is explained to a number of people they prefer to abandon the proposed trip across the border, and they submit to the vaccination ordeal. Many amusing incidents have occurred on the ferry boat, particularly among the women who boarded the boat. One refused to be vaccinated on her arm, and the operation was performed on the calf of her leg. The same precautions are being taken at the tunnel, and no one can escape the doctors by crossing by train. The passengers on the through trains are not molested, as they do not leave the coaches.

JUDGMENT AGAINST COREAN PRINCE.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Judgment by default for $30,000 against Prince Euiwha, the second son of the King of Corea, was entered here yesterday. The plaintiffs are Wolf Bros. & Co., brokers, of New York, who sued on the promissory note made by the Prince. They hope to collect the money through the Corea legation. The prince submitted no defense, but in an interview admitted he owed the money. The money is said to be in certain transactions in Wall street.

TERRIBLE DEED OF A PRECOCIOUS CHILD

Boy of Three Years Deliberately Sets Fire to His Baby Sister's Clothing With Fatal Results.

Hammond, Ind., Feb. 17.—William Novak, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Novak, of this city, is said to have deliberately set fire to the clothing of his baby sister and which he burned.

At the inquest over the child it developed that after the father of the children, who is a fireman, had gone to work, the mother reprimanded the boy for some trifling fault, and locked both children in the kitchen while she went to a grocery store. In one corner of the kitchen was a cupboard on the shelf of which were stored matches. The mother was absent about fifteen minutes. When she returned and opened the kitchen door the sickening odor of burning flesh, most overpowering her. On the floor lay the fifteen-months-old girl, writhing in pain, and burned almost beyond recognition. Standing nearby was her little brother, watching the flames, which had begun to eat into the pine floor of the room.

The boy, who is precocious and talkative, said at the inquest that he had lighted the baby's clothes. He exhibited no grief upon being showed the charred body.

CORPSE WEIGHED 700 POUNDS.

New York, Feb. 15.—It required the utmost strength of twelve men to carry to the grave the casket containing the remains of Dennis Leahy, whose funeral has just been held. The dead man weighed 700 pounds. His enormous weight had been acquired within the past ten years. Appreciating the trouble his interment might cause his friends, Leahy hunted up a place of residence close to a cemetery, and it was necessary to carry the casket only a short distance.

THE DEATH RECORD

Death of the Well-Known Minstrel, W. H. West—Cancer Ended the Fun-Maker's Career.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Wm. H. West, known for the past quarter of century to theater-goers as "Billy West, the minstrel," died here Saturday afternoon, aged 46. He had been sick over two months. Early in the week a cancerous growth, which his physicians ascribed to excessive smoking, was removed from his throat, but he never recovered from the effects of the operation.

Mr. West's friends in Chicago estimate his estate at $500,000. The Detroit Free Press says: Judge Horton, who was a minstrel man himself, and who is now staying at the Hotel Campus, talked for a few minutes to a Free Press representative concerning the late W. H. West.

"His right name was W. H. Flynn," said Judge Horton, "and he was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1852. He doubled up with Primrose in 1872, and I met him a couple of years afterwards with Gorton & Benjamin's New Orleans minstrels. A little later he was with Haverly's minstrels. In 1879 Milt Barlow, George Wilson and Primrose and West started their big minstrel troupe, and in 1882, Thatcher, Primrose and West went out together at the head of a company."

"Primrose and West were together 27 years and 2 months and had a big minstrel festival in Madison Square Garden to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their union, and on that occasion they did the specialty they first appeared in, an old style clog dance."

"West's first wife was Fay Templeton, and by his marriage with his last wife he became brother-in-law of

DORCHESTER STATION

Dorchester, Feb. 15.—A happy event occurred on the evening of Feb. 12 at 6:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Finch, Dorchester, when their eldest daughter was given in marriage to Mr. Robert A. Murray, of Lone Rock, Wis. In the handsomely decorated parlor the friends of the contracting parties witnessed the tying of the nuptial knot, beneath a beautifully decorated arch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Veal, pastor of the Methodist Church, amid the strains of the Wedding March, a contribution by Miss Veal. The bride looked charming in a castor broadcloth traveling suit. Miss Finch, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Murray, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen. The young couple left on a trip to Charlton, Mich., and other places, before going to their home in Wisconsin. They carry with them the best wishes of their many friends for a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.
