When Cy Reidy and Rube Deneau get on the coaching lines something just has to go. Bill Bradshaw's effectiveness disappeared yesterday when this pair started in to "get him."

Umpire Daly stopped the game in the fifth and threatened to put a bleacher fan out of the grounds for yelling insulting remarks at Bradshaw. Daly got a hand from the rest of the crowd for his action. The fan would have been removed had his identity been discovered. He never said a word after the incident.

Bobby Auld will likely start against the locals today, while Fitzpatrick will probably be Manager Deneau's choice Auld has been pitching good ball for the Dutchmen, and the game should be a good one. Schaeffer or Bramble will likely be Keenan's choice against Heck in tomorrow's game.
