Wireless for Remote Provinces.

A plan to erect six radio plants in Western Canada is being considered by the Dominion of Canada that closer contact with its outlying provinces may be established.

Weddings of the Month

KILLINGSWORTH-SWIFT.

wore a gown of Canton cocoa crepe with cocoa slippers and stockings to match. She wore a nigger brown hat

Sarnia, Sept. 12 .- A pretty Septemwas performed by Rev. A. R. John-stone of Warwickville village, and took place on the veranda, which was prettily decorated with an abundance of autumn flowers. The bride wore a bridal gown of oyster white satin

COWPER—LANGRIDGE. Special to The Advertiser.

Remarkable Discovery

-Newer Form of Iron

There is Strength In Every Tablet nerves—it is a newer form of iron, like the hron in your blood and like the iron in splanch. It is so prepared that it will not injure the teeth nor dis-turb the atemach. It is ready for almost lumediate absorp-tion and assimulation by the or almost immediate absorp-ion and assimulation by the olood while some physicians. daim metallic iron which eople awally take is not borbed at all. If you are t strong or well you owe it roamelf to make the follow-test: See how long you can walk without becoming

DOLLAR-CAMPBELL.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Campbell, West Lorne, was the scene of a very pretty early fall wedding Wednesday afternoon, September 5, at 3 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Margaret L. A., was married to Dr. George Logie Dollar of Horne-payne, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dollar of Baysville, Ont.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her wedding gown of white georgette, wearing her mother's wedding veil of silk tulle, held in place with a band of pearls and orange blossoms, and carrying a sheaf of Ophelia ceremony a reception was held at veil of silk tulle, held in place with a band of pearls and orange blossoms, and carrying a sheaf of Ophelia roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Enebelle Campbell, daintily gowned in cream canton crepe, trimmed in lace, and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Gordon Dollar of Huntsville. The winsome little flower girl, Miss Helen Lyle of little flower girl, Miss Helen Lyle of After their return Dr. and Mrs. Coats-St. Thomas looked very sweet wear-ing a dress of yellow organdy, and carrying a basket of yellow flowers street, Toronto. and ferns containing the ring. Miss Jean Campbell, sister of the bride, wearing rose satin, played the wedwearing rose satin, played the signing ding march, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Alex. Lyle of St. Thomas, Sept. 12.—A very pretty autumn wedding was solten the register Mrs. Alex. Lyle of St. Thomas sang very sweetly, "Lead emnized this morning at 8 o'clock at

Us."

The house was beautifully decorated in yellow and white. The large dated in yellow and white. The large Mrs. W. H. Swift, St. Thomas, was marriage to Mr. W. J. Kilclematis, with white and yellow flow-ers appearing among the green. An W. A. Killingsworth, Toronto. The arch was formed in front from which Rev. Mons. West officiated at the arch was formed in front from which there were three white bells suspended with ribbon. Streamers of the ribbon were looped between the bells hy cupids.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly gowned in brown panne velvet, with brown streamers and a sand and pink

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held. Toasts were then offered to bride and groom by Rev. Mr. Carr of West Lorne, Dr. Leitch and Dr. Gilbert of St. Thomas, wore a gown of Canton coops green. Mr. Blair of Hornepayne, and Mr.

Dr. and Mrs. Dollar left amid showers of confetti on a six weeks' trip to Vancouver and Seattle. On their return they will take up their residence in Hornepayne, Ontario. The bride looked very smart in a traveling costume of brown canton crepe and brown wrap, with hat and shoes to match. The groom's cift to the bride. match. The groom's gift to the brides a wrist watch: to the brides E. Killingsworth, of Toronto, brother flower girl, a ring; to the of the groom, was best man. The Masonic cuff links; to the ushers were Alonzo J. Swift and Jack best man. Masonic cuff links; to the planist, a wrist watch; to each of the waiters, seven in number, the works of Dickens in leather binding.

The bride was the recipient of many sang "O Salutaris" very beautifully. eautiful presents.

After the ceremony a wedding Guests from a distance were Mr. breakfast was held at the home of Alex. Lyle senior, grandfather of the bride's parents on St. Catherine bride; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lyle street, the house being prettily decjunior; Mr. and Mrs. John Lyle, and orated with white streamers and have been grandfather Gordon and leave with balls. Mr. and Mrs. Will on and daughter, Gordon and large pink bells. Mr. and Mrs. Kil-Helen; Dr. Leitch, Mrs. Ballah, Miss lingsworth left shortly afterwards on Smith, Mrs. Gilbert, Dr. Gilbert, Mr. a wedding trip to St. Anne's College. The bride traveled in a navy blue Tufford and son, Miss Gurtie CampThe bride traveled in a navy blue bell, Curtis and Neil Campbell, all of tricotine suit with gray slippers and St. Thomas; Mrs. Trembly and the daughters of Port Burwell, Margaret and Nellie, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Blair side in Toronto. The groom's present to the bride was a dinner ring stone set in white son of the late Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Coasworth. The ceremony was perof the church, and the wedding music was played by Dr. Percy Pascoe of Woodstock. The church was beatifully decorated with autumn flowers. The bride was given away by her father, and wore her wedding gown of white accordion-pleated georgette over satin, and carried illy of the walky. Her tulle rail fell settly over P. Lane, pastor ber wedding was solemnized on Tues

Prepared Especially for Infants and Children of All Ages

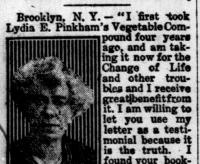

Mother! Fletcher's Castoria has been in use for over 30 years as a pleasant, harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups. Contains no narcotics. Proven directions are on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

The genuine bears signature of Thamesford. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Merritt of Prestor.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

reatibenentifold it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testi-monial because it is the truth. I found your book-let in my letter box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recom-mended it already to all my friends and relatives."—Mrs. ENGLEMANN, 2002 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brook-lyn, N. Y.

lyn, N. Y.

For the woman suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the woman of middle age who is passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the troubles common at that

SOCIETIES and THE HOME

CELEBRATE DIAMOND WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Moore of Palmyra, who recently marked the sixtieth universary of their wedding at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Shipp, Talbot read. Mr. W. H. Moore of Horton street, this city, is a son.

of navy canton crepe. Mrs. Cowper, the groom's mother, was handsomely gowned in gray canton crepe, while the groom's sisters were daintily gowned in cocoa brown and sand crepe. Later the happy couple left for Toronto, Montreal and Albany, New York. The bride wore a smart suit of navy blue with hat to match and a handsome fox fur. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Cowper will be at home to their friends at 147 Oxford street, Woodstock, after September

RUSSELL-SCOTT.

Special to The Advertiser. Seaforth, Sept. 12.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Scott was the scene of a happy event at high noon on Tuesday, September 11, when their only daughter, Edith Harriet, was united in marriage to Mr. James Burn Russell, B.A., of Hartford, Conn., eldest son of Mr. W. J. Rus-sell of Guelph. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. H. Larkin

The bridal party entered the din ing room and took their place in front of a bank of gladioli, roses and ferns. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a pretty gown of white canton crepe, heavily braided. She wore a veil of embroidered net with bandeau of orange blossoms, and carried a because of Sweetheart carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Jessie roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Jessie Wilson of Waterloo, was becomingly gowned in orchid crepe de chine with corsage bouquet of Sunset roses. The groom was supported by Mr. James M. Scott, brother of the bride, During the signing of the register Mr. James T. Scott sang "Love's Coronation." The wedding march was played by Miss Marion Scarlett.

Following the ceremony an inviting wedding breakfast was served, the table decorations being in pink and white, after which Mr. and Mrs. Russell left on the afternoon train for New York and the Adirondacks, the bride traveling in a navy tricotine suit with gray French blouse and hat of contrasting color in burnt orange. The bride and groom are both graduates in arts of the 1921 class in Toronto University. They will be at home after October 1 at Apartment B2, 28 Girard avenue

HAAGSMA-BENNER.

Special to The Advertiser. Strathroy, Sept. 12.-The marriage took place Tuesday at the rectory, Rev. George Pugsley officiating, of Mr. Riekel Haagsma of Alvinston, formerly of Oosthem, Friesland, Netherlands, to Miss Mary E'elena Augusta Benner of Alvinston. bridal gown of oyster white satin with pearl trimmings, and wearing a bridal veil embroidered in silk, her bouquet, was of Ophelia roses and maiden hair fern, and her only ornament was a rope of pearls, the gift of the groom. Doris May Lapham, sister of the groom, attended the bride. Walker Wallace, Cromwell street, Sarnia, attended the groom. After the ceremony about 40 guests enjoyed a dainty luncheon.

VOLGER-CARRUTHERS, On Saturday evening last the Rev. John Moore at his residence united in marriage Mr. John B. Volger of Bothwell and Miss Nora Carruthers, econd daughter of Mr. Nathaniel Carruthers of Strathroy.

CLUB NEWS

SUNSHINE CLUB MEETS. Mrs. Bert Hookway was winner of the mystery prize given Tuesday night at the meeting of the Sunshine Club, Trinity Chapter, O. E. S., heid at the home of Mrs. W. W. Gammage, the prize being donated by Miss Gammage and Miss Willis. Furtner plans for the big bazaar, which is to be held on Friday, Nov. 23, were made at this meeting, which, however, was largely a social gathering and re-union of the members after the holi-Thamesford. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Merritt of Preston. conducted by Rev. Merritt of Preston. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Dilliger of Winnipeg, sister of the bride, who was beautifully gowned in black silk lace over black satin with bead trimming. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in a gown of pearl gray georgette with shoes to match and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Ophelia roses. They were unattended. A dainty wedding dinner was served following the reception, only the immediate relatives being present. The table was prettily decorated with pink and white asters, snapdragons and sweet peas. Mrs. Langridge, mother of the bride, wore a handsome and becoming gown days. The tea hostesses were Mrs. G. Gammage, Jun., Mrs. Foster of Toronto, Mrs. A. J. McGuffin, and Mrs. Harry Looney. A splendid array of articles made by the members during the summer for the bazaar were An interesting feature of the evenarticles made by the members during the summer for the bazaar were turned in at this meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. N. Hart, King street, on the second Tuesday in October.

An interesting feature of the evening was the prize waltz for the John A. Nach trophy, also for the miniature trophies presented by the club. Miss Myrtle Judd and Mr. Irwin GRACE COUNTRY CLUB.

The annual meeting of the Grace Country Club was held at the home of Agnes C. McKay on Saturday, September 1. The Bible reading was taken by Mabel Reith. Annabel Mc-Kay read an interesting paper, after which the following officers were elected: President, Anna McKay; elected: Fresident, Anna McKay; first vice-president, Agnes C. McKay; second vice-president, Mabel Mathe-son; secretary, Mabel Reith; treas-urer, Jean Sutherland, and press reporter, Marjorie Matheson.

The club had a very successful year to report. The receipts amounted to $193.99, and the expenditures to $130.14, leaving a balance on hand f $63.85.

The honorary president, Miss Grace Patterson of India, was present at the meeting. After the business a dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Merle and Jean Hogg on Sept. 15. TO HOLD FALL BAZAAR.

Chatham, Sept. 12.-Arrangement for a rummage sale to be held next week were made at a meeting of the alumnae of the General Hospital. This was the first meeting of the season and plans for a bazaar to be held in the fall were also made.

the lesson and Jean Morrison and Leonard Johnson favored with a vocal duet. Two new members were welcomed to the league, and the meeting came to a close with a game introduced by Miss Ferguson. RALLY NIGHT NEXT WEEK.

Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, Sept. 12.—An excellent talk on missionary work by Rev. Dr. H. W. Crews was given at the meet ing of the Victoria Avenue Metho-dist Epworth League. There was a splendid attendance and the meeting was in charge of Maurice O'Beay. Miss Gwen Cross gave one of Edgar Guest's well-known poems, after which announcement was made of the peach social to be given by the league and Mission Circle on October 21. Next Monday night will be rally night and Rev. H. Bentley will address the young people. Dr. H. W. Crews closed the meeting with prayer.

PLAN CHICKEN SUPPER. Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, Sept. 12.—Plans for chicken supper to be held in connection tion with the anniversary services the last of October were made at the meeting of St. Andrew's Ladies' Aid. This was the first meeting this sea-Mrs. Innes, the president, occupied the chair, and further arrangemen were made for the bazaar which to take place the last of October ar first days of November. At the close of the meeting there was a hour and tea was served by Mrs. James Gray, Mrs. A. Jacklin, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. J. Kiel, Mrs. Innes, Mrs. George Park, Mrs. H. D. Smith and Mrs. I. Johnstone.

OPENS SOCIAL SEASON

Successful Dance in Winter Gardens.

The Manhattan Club dance, a suc cessful and enjoyable affair held last evening in the Winter Gardens, opened the social season for this year. The Gardens were gaily decorated with streamers and festoons of red, old gold and blue, the 'club colors, and crepe paper in the same colors were used to shade the lights

The guests numbered over four hundred and during the evening many attractive novelty dances were intro-duced, including the paper hat dance, when each lady received a dainty paper cap, while her escort was prepaper cap, while her escort was pre-sented with a Chinese cap and long the autumn quarterly meeting of the

The Remick trio, including Misses Dorothy Colhane, Evelyn Ryan and Mr. Eddie Jackson, gave several dehightful numbers; the most popular being "The Dreamy Melody," "Beside the Babbling Brook," and "The Girl of the Golden West."

Excellent dance music was provid ed by the Lombardo orchestra, and the patrons and patronesses of the evening included: Mayor Wenige and Mrs. Wenige, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. James McCor Nash, Mr. and Mrs. James McCor-mick, Mr. and Mrs. W. Baynes, Mr. and Mrs. Eardley Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner. The committee in charge of the arrangements in-cluded: Messrs. Victor Chittick, W. Mason, Jack Ward, Leonard Quick, of Dorchester were chosen as the best waltzers, and carried off the hand-

Fashions by Wire

Special to The Advertiser. Sleeves Grow Medieval. Paris, Sept. 12.—There is a decidedly medieval touch to varieties of new sleeves. These are long and tight and seen on afternoon gowns Belt Placed Low. Paris, Sept. 12.—A flat effect in back, from neck to bustle down is imperative. If there is such a thing as a belt today it is rather incon-spicuous and placed low on the hips.

Trimming Worn at Back. London, Sept. 12.—There is a type of autumn hat worn here today which permits diself no ornament in front. Contrasted with the bare front is a rear heavily trimmed with fruit, rib-bon, flowers feathers, or, indeed, with almost anything rich in texture bright in shade White Frocks Popular. New York, Sept. 12.—The all-white frock is enjoying a considerable vogue today, especially for the debutante. It is usually of crepe de chine and with glistening patches of crystal or brilliant embroidery.

Social and Personal

Miss Gwen Woods leaves this week son and Miss Irene Wood, two Septo spend a few days in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Rich have returned from their summer home at Wiarton. Miss Elsie Mulkern is spending two weeks in Toronto and elsewhere. Miss Louise Gahan has returned ne, after an enjoyable visit in To-

Mr. Richard Booth, who has spent the past month in North Bay, returns home this week.

Mrs. Foster of Toronto is a guest with her mother, Mrs. Robert Par-sons, Dundas street. Miss Margaret Frances Hughes of Oakland is a guest with Mrs. Robert Allen, William street. Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodburne of Hastings, Mich., are visiting relatives and friends in the city.

Dr. Spenceley of the Western University faculty has returned to the city after a delightful holiday. The Misses Simpson, Queen's avven. Archdeacon Beamish of Belleville is the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. Weir, Lorne avenue, during Fair Week, and returning to the city. Miss Margaret Tanton has left for St. Thomas, where she is attending Alma Mrs. Llewellyn Curnoe, who has been spending the summer at Sarnia Beach, has returned to her home in

Mr. William Parker of Toronto is Mrs. B. Evans has returned to Detroit, after an enjoyable visit with Mr. Skinner and Miss Skinner, York Mrs. L. P. Shanks, who has been the past six weeks in Ottawa, the pisting her mothers at Catskill, N. guests of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr.

I., is returning to town the end of and Mrs. Harry Neville Misses Dorothy and Leona Fitz-patrick of Toronto are guests with Mrs. P. Kelleher, 716 Queen's avenue, for two weeks, have returned home.

during Fair week.

Mrs. Ida Harrison left yesterday for Alliston, where she will spend a London, and will spend a few days in the city before returning to Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kerrigan

Wyatt were guests at the King Ed.

Wyatt were guests at the King Ed.

Wasuret, a bride-elect of this month, ward, Toronto, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Errol Firth Buller ard White, Miss Dorothy Durand, (formerly Miss Mabel Broughton) have returned to town from their noneymoon, spent in Montreal. Miss Margaret Jordan entertained at the tea hour at "The Grange" yes-terday in honor of Miss Madeline imson, whose marriage takes place Mrs. Robert Hague of Toronto, accompanied by her young son, Francis Dyson, is visiting her brother, Mr. Love, and Mrs. Love, Springbank. Miss Elliott, Dufferin avenue, will entertain the members of the London Auxiliary to the McAll Mission for their first meeting of the fall, to be yesterday for Vancouver; where they made to the state of the state

The meeting of the Knollwood Park Mothers Club, which was to have been held tonight, has been post-poned until next Thursday, owing to mild lass attend the convention.

Mrs. J. Marr. Dufferin avenue, has is her guest her nephew, Mr. Robert the hostess recently of a charming shower given in honor of Mrs. Fran-Popular Social Club Holds

Mrs. J. Marr. Dullerin avenue, has the hostess recently of a charming shower given in honor of Mrs. Francis Cook, formerly Miss Bessie Nanfan. The dining-room table was the west to New York. Miss M. I. Thompson, who recent-ly resigned her position as superin-endent of Bethesda Hospital, has left the city to join the staff of the Toronto General Hospital. The Niven Cup, played for by the ladies' and men's golf teams of the London Hunt Club, yesterday afternoon, was won by the ladies' team, with a score of 9 to 5.

Mrs. E. J. Sifton and Mrs. Calder, who motored from Hamilton and were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, Dundas street, have returned home after a most enjoyable visit. Miss Beth Pennington will be Complimenting Miss Margaret Coleman, a bride-elect of the month. Miss Kathleen Cowan entertained at provincial executive of Girl Guides which takes place in Toronto, Septem. Miss Beth Pennington, St.

George Wainwright presided over the dainty tea table. The guests were: George street, was the hostess of a charming shower yesterday afternoon given in honor of Miss Helen Thom-Granger, Miss Trece White, Miss

NEW GARDEN BEDS.

Your Home and You By HELEN KENDALL young plants. Scatter it around each plant, but do not let it touch the

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Taylor, who

Among the hostesses who will en-

Miss Louise Duffield, Miss Kathleen Coles, Mrs. Olaf Rechnitzer, Mrs.

Gordon Hunt, Miss Kathleen Cowan

The London Women Teachers' Guild will open the season this year with an enjoyable social evening, it is expected, when they officially wel-come back to town Miss Myrtle Justin, who has spent the past year in England. Plans for this event will be made on Monday evening next at will attend the triennial meeting of the National Women's Press Club, September 24 to 27. They will visit tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers, and through on field, who presented the many gifts.

Mrs. W Dalton of Detroit (formerly of London), Dr. and Mrs. Day of Connaught, North Ontario, and

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dickson of To-ronto motored to Cheboygan, North Michigan, where they spent a pleasant time with Mrs. Briggs. Dr. and Mrs. Day motored from Connaught.

North Ontario, to Port Huron, where they were joined by Mrs. Dalton and Mr. and Mrs. Dickson.

a charming shower and tea yesterday afternoon at "Birkhill." At the tea hour, Mrs. George Grange and Mrs.

opening in the table appe and Miss Babbie Chisholm.

September may be the end of the eason, from one point of view, but season, from one point of view, but to the gardener it is really the beginning of the new garden-year.
"This is the month of spring hopes in the gardener's dreamland," says the author of "The Seasons in a Flower Garden," "the time to plan for the next far-away birth-time of flowers."

When the bed is ready, plant the young hollyhocks that have sprung up all around the large hollyhocks. You can move young foxgloves, sweet williams, delphiniums and pinks, and the earlier you do it the better, as they will establish root growth by frost so that they will not be harmed. Oriental poppies should be moved by Oriental poppies should be mo If you are enlarging your garden, flowers next spring, now is the time to spade up the ground, turn the grass under to decry and become rich food for the blossoms, and add the necestary for the blossoms, and add the necestary for the blossoms. sary fertilier. Not too much fer-tilizer, you know, or it will burn the wellower also made.

Just Apply This Paste and the Hairs Will Vanish

Welcome New Members.
Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, Sept. 12.—The Young People's League of Park Street Methodist Church was addressed by Mook, Christian Adventure." Before Mr. Jones gave the very stirring talk on the sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave a brief summary of the first five chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read sixth and seventh chapters of the study book, Miss Walker gave allowed to appear, it will not make the seed and Methodicaus and delatone set insures any woman a clear, hairless skin. To prepare the paste, skin the special to the sect and the situation of the sect and seventh chapters. Miss Ethel Laidlaw read strength and the skin washed, every trace of hair will have vanished. No pain attends the use of the delatone and the skin washed, every trace of hair

Another bit of garden work for September is the gathering up of seeds in the seed pods. Save your finest blossoms of annual (zinnias, finest blossoms of annual (zinnias, marigolds, and so on), by tying a bit of ribbon around their stems while they are blooming. Then when they have dried, removed the seed and keep it to plant another spring.

Many of the earliest spring bloomers should have their seed planted now in the open ground; otherwise they do not get the early start they need. Popples, annual larkspur, bluets, and forget-me-nots, may all be sown early in September. By September 15 plant the bulbs of snow-drops, crocuses, narcissus, daffodils, Traveling Free in the Deep Sea.

The sucking fishes of the deep seas have their back fin modified into a powerful sucker by which they fasten themselves to vessels or to big sea animals, and solve the problem of transportation.

Miss Martha Greatorex of Dorchester, whose marriage to Mr. Albert Higgs of London takes place this month, was the guest, of honor recently, of an enjoyable shower given at the home of her parents, Mr. and The driving and putting competition on Wednesday, Sept. 19, will begin the delightful series of autumn competitions at the Highland Golf Club. In October the handicap matches will commence.

Mrs. S. Greatorex in Doctor was enjoyed early in the evening, and later many gifts accompanied by clever and original verses were presented to Miss Greatorex. The guests included many friends and relatives from Lon-

In honor of her guest, Miss Flor-ence Cooper of Sarnia, Miss Eleanor Tull arranged a jolly corn roast this week. The guests, numbering 50, motored to the home of Mrs. Thomas Tull in Mount Brydges.

many friends and relatives from Lon-don.

In honor of Miss Mabel McLachlan, a September bride-elect, the mem-bers of the B. S. C. of St. Andrew's Church held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. J. P. Parkinson. Church held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. J. P. Parkinsou, Ridout street south. Many dainty and An interesting visitor in town is Norman Jamieson of Green Hedges, Copetown, Ont., who is an exhibitor at the Western Fair. Mr. Jamieson is a husband of Nina Moore Jamieson, the popular Canadlan writer. attractive gifts were presented to the bride-elect in a decorated box, a husband of Nina Moore Jamieson is the popular Canadian writer.

Mrs. Allen McKenzie of Banes, Cuba, who has been a guest for the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan, Princess avenue, is leaving next week, accommanded by the Mrs. The guests numbered twenty.

nue, is leaving next week, accompanied by Mr. McKenzie, for Cuba. BOTHWELL BRIDE-ELECT Mr. and Mrs. John Tanton and fam-RECEIVES MANY GIFTS

Special to The Advertiser. Bothwell Sent 12-Miss Ros Johnson, Bothwell, a popular brideelect was the guest of honor recent-Mr. E. B. Clancey of Guelph, who ly of a shower given by the ladies of has acted as judge at the leading Grace Church at the home of Miss Canadian horse shows this year, is Agnes Beamigh. About 50 members Agnes Beamish. About 50 members in London this week, judging at the Western Fair. While in the city he is the guest of Dr. G. A. Routledge were present, and as Miss Alice Elliott sang "Here Comes the Bride," a house basket containing attractive list the thought of the moment for gifts was presented to the guest of honor. Games were enjoyed later, followed by dainty refreshments. Mrs. Wilbert E. Smith. accompanied by her two children, Eileer and Beverley, of Langarth stree have returned home, after spending

All the Theatres

the melodrama adapted from Sir Walter Scott's masterpiece.

arand—Monday, Tuesday, Wed-nesday, twice daily: Irons & Clamage present 40 stars of stageland in the musical rev&e, "Temptations of 1923."

"Temptations of 1923."
Thursday, Friday and Saturday, evenings and Saturday matinee: The Dumbells Company, Limited, present Capt. Plunkett's annual Canadian revue, "Cheerio," with Ross Hamilton and Al Plunkett.

Anita Stewart in "The Love Piker." Thursday, Friday and Saturday: Mae Murray in "The French Doll." Vaudeville.

Patricia—All Fair week: "The Town That Forgot God." Vaude-

"Blonde" Furs Shown. London, Sept. 12.-Light-colored furs, of the kind known as "blonde." are more and more in favor today. These furs, whether used alone or combined with magnificent fabrica, often are arranged in slenderizing

Monograms Still Popular,

New York. Sept. 12 .-- A monogram elaborate in design and vivid in tint.

VELVETEX — VELVETEX — VELVETEX — VELVETEX

Don't Throw Your Old Carpets Away. No matter how old, how dirty, how dilapidated (we sterilize them), have them made into the famous

"VELVETEX" RUGS.

We have hundreds of recommendations from our satisfied customers. In Montreal Toronto, Windsor and London, our driver collects the carpet from attic, cellar or off the floor and delivers the finished rug without any orthochem. or on the noor and delivers the mission ray without any extra charge.

Send postal to have our representative call, or phone 2485.

We pay freight and express both ways and guarantee satisfaction. There is a factory and reputation behind Velvetex.

CANADA RUG CO.
Velvetex Building, 96-98 Carling St., London, Ont.
Write for free Booklet.
See our exhibit in Crystal Palace,
Western Fair, London, Ont. VELVETEX — VELVETEX — VELVETEX

CEDAR CHESTS ARE NOW BEING EMPTIED

and fall suits and overcoats looked over. We will clean, make minor repairs, darn up the little moth holes-maybe you won't need to buy a fall suit or coat at all.

Just phone 558 for a service wagon. SOMEWAY AND SOMEHOW

LAUNDERERS, DRY CLEANERS, DYERS & RUG CLEANERS.

We clean overalls a new way. Try it and get a sample tin of Snap