He is an amateur photographer of much merit as well as a keen angler. Occasionally he brought on parties of friends to enjoy the opportunities for pleasing outings on the head waters of the Tobique. Mrs. Howes some-times accompanied her husband on his ex-peditions, and sometimes remained at An-dover. She was a graceful, pleasing and agreeable lady, and all who have ever met her will hear with sorrow of the terrible calamity which ends her life. As the FARMER goes to press, Mr. George J. Bliss, clerk of the House of Assembly, is lying in a dying condition. He was in his asual health on Monday, attended to routine lutive in the morning and then, in company with Mrs. Bliss, went down to Lincoln where they took dinner with their son-in-law, Parher Glasier. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Bliss went out to the Lincoln station, a short distance from Mr. Glasier's residence, to take the express back to Fredericton. While waiting on the station platform, Mr. Bliss syddenly fell to the ground in an unconscious calamity which ends her life.

Agidenly fell to the ground in an unconscious state. As soon as the train arrived, he was placed on board brought to Fredericton and thence to Victoria Hospital, his wife and Mr. Glasier accompanying him. Despite the best of medical attendance, Mr. Bliss has never recovered consciousness.
