McIntyre & Wardwell send the following despatch to their branch office in Toronto: The Coal stocks were the feature this morning, but although conditions justify liquidation this morning's selling looked like short contracts put out by traders. The tone of the market was dull and strong this afternoon, with a slight reaction at the close from highest prices. Foreign exchange firm at 8 1-2, but the bankers interested in the bond syndicate seem to be in a position to check any advance toward the gold shipping point. Union Pacific for 1894 shows a decrease of $2,600,000 in gross, and $2,166,000 in met. The pooling bill seems to be dead in this Congress.
