United States.

Fort Sullivan. - The troops have left us for the scene of war in the South.
Maj. Churchill, in command was ordered some weeks since to repair to Fort Mitchell, Alabama, and the mail of Saturday evening, brought orders for Capt. Childs and his company to proceed to Black Creek, near St. Augustine, Florida. This order was obeyed with true military promptness. At 4 o'clock, on Sunday, the Fort was evacuated, and the public property there placed in the charge of Mr. Joseph C. Noyes. At two, the leave taken was over, - the cheer from the ship and shore, had mingled with the "adieu" - and the crowd had, listened to the roll-call on the Boundary's deck.
This event to our village - famous various ways, is of consequence, in various ways. And the circumstances attending it, are of a painful nature to many. Through Maj. Churchill, has been stationed here but a few months he still, as his nature made him - "of us" as soon as he came - "among us" - he had gained a strong hold upon our confidence and love.
Capt. Childs commanded the post for many years. A gentleman in manners, and a christian in character, he won what he deserved, - the respect and esteem of the whole community.
And of the troops under his command, it is but truth to say, that we have had no causes of complaint against them, and that in their intercourse with our citizens, they were orderly and respectful, sharily without exception.

DEATH OF JAMES MADISON.
The Southern mail of yesterday brought us the melancholy intelligence of the death of EX-PRESIDENT MADISON. He died at his residence at Montpelier, Virginia, on the 28th June, at the ripe age of ninety years. It would require volumes of paper, and more time than we can devote to the subject, to give a detailed history of the life and various public services of this great and good man. While but a youth he took an active part in the political affairs of his native state, and on the breaking out of the American Revolution was one of the first who pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honors, to the cause of their country. The conspicuous part he acted during this stormy period is familiar to all, and has stamped his name in characters indelible, on the hearts of his countrymen. His public speeches in Congress during the administration of Washington, and his political writings at a later period, were marked by a strength of intellect, and soundness of judgment, which rendered him at once conspicuous and popular as a public man. On the election of Mr. Jefferson to the Presidency, he was called to the Department of State, which office he filled with credit to himself, and honour to the country. He succeeded that venerable patriot and statesman, during the administration of Mr. Madison; party politics rage with great fury, and as the events of the late war developed themselves, threatened for a while the internal peace of the country. But by the wisdom and firmness of the illustrious subject of this notice, the vessel of state rode out the storm unharmed, and the temporary excitement was followed by the peaceful and prosperous political calm which prevailed after the war and during the succeeding administration of Mr. Monroe. As a statesman, a patriot, and a philosopher, his name will go down to posterity, without a spot or blemish, - revered and honored by every true American. - Adieu & Adieu.

COUNT SEVILLERS - Joseph Buonaparte, formerly King of Naples and afterwards of Spain, now bearing the title of the Count Sevilliers after a residence in this country since the downfall of the French imperial dynasty, a period of more than twenty years, yesterday took his final leave, and embarked for London in the packet ship Philadelphia, whence, it is said he will not return.

Gen. Scott has been recalled, and General Jessup has command of the operations in the South.
The Hon. Lewis Cass, Secretary of War, has been appointed Minister to the Court of France.
A farmer called on Earl Fitzwilliam to represent that his crop of wheat had been seriously injured in a field adjoining a certain wood, where his hounds had, during the winter, frequently met to hunt. He stated that the young wheat had been so cut up and destroyed that in some days he could not hope for any produce. "Well, my friend," said his lordship, "I am aware that we have frequently met in that field, and that we have done considerable injury, and if you can procure an estimate of the loss you have sustained, I will repay you." The farmer replied that anticipating his lordship's consideration of kindness, he had requested a friend to assist him in estimating the damage and they thought that, as the crop was quite destroyed £50 would not more than repay him. The Earl immediately gave him the money. As the harvest, however approached the wheat grew, and in these parts of the field they were most trampled upon, the corn was the strongest and most luxuriant. The farmer went again to his lordship, and being introduced, "I am come, my lord, respecting the field of wheat adjoining such a wood." His lordship instantly recollected the circumstance. "Well, my friend, did I not allow you sufficient to remunerate you for your loss?" "Yes, my lord, I have found that I have sustained no loss at all, for where the horses had most cut the land, the crop is most promising, and I have therefore brought the £50 back again." "Ah!" exclaimed the earl, "that is what I like; this is what ought to be between man and man," the then entered into conversation with the farmer, asking him some questions about his family - how many children he had, &c. His lordship then went into another room, and returning, presented the farmer a check for £2100. "Take care of this, and when your eldest son is of age, present it to him and tell him the occasion that produced it." "We know not which most to admire, the benevolence or the wisdom displayed by this illustrious man; for while doing a noble act of generosity, he was handing down a lesson of integrity to another generation." - English paper.

That New York capitalists and merchants are not men of straw has been fully tested within the last few months. With apprehensions of a rupture with France which had a great effect upon commercial operations - a winter with its thirty snows and a severity unequalled since the memorable winter of 1789; and, add to the above, the great conflagration of December which destroyed twenty-five million dollars worth of property, and broke down nearly all the fire insurance offices - yet, notwithstanding all these drawbacks, scarcely a failure has taken place; nay, most of the broken offices have already been reconstituted by new subscriptions; the thousands burnt out have found temporary locations and are well supplied with goods, whilst some hundreds of substantial stores are already rising up in the "burnt district," and all classes disposed to labour find abundance of employment and good wages. Real estate too has risen rapidly in every part of the city, and could materials and work be procured; many hundred dwellings at present absolutely required, would be erected in the upper parts of the city, and pay fair interest for the investment.

Upper Canada.
The venerable Bishop Macdonell, of Upper Canada, has recently published a long and extremely interesting address to the Catholic and Protestant Freeholders of Stormont and Glengarry. After giving a rapid sketch of his own useful and honorable life, with the view of showing the parties to whom he addresses himself, the claims he has upon their confidence, he proceeds, as follows, to lay before them his opinion of the men whom they should return to Parliament as their Representatives. The language which the Reverend Prelate employs is strong, but not one whit more so than the circumstances which induced him to write will amply justify.
You will elect men to represent you in the ensuing Parliament of sound and loyal principles, who have no real good of the country at heart, who will not allow themselves to be duped or misled by wicked hypocritical Radicals, who are endeavouring to drive the Province into rebellion, and to cut off every connection between Canada and Great Britain your Mother Country, and subject you to the domination of Yankee rulers and Lynch law.
Your gracious and benevolent Sovereign sent you out as his representative, a personage distinguished for abilities, knowledge and integrity, to redress all the grievances and abuses that had crept into the Government of this province, since its first establishment; but, in place of meeting him with cordiality, and offering their co-operation in the important work of Reform, what do the Radicals do? Why, they assail him like hell hounds, with every possible abuse, indignity and insult; and your late Representatives are joined in politics and friendship with these Radical worthies, and would fain make you believe that they are your friends, and the friends of the country; although implicit enemies of yourselves, your religion and your country; and this they proved by stopping the money, which the government had been giving for some years past towards building and repairing Catholic churches, supporting Catholic schools, and maintaining Catholic clergy.
At the same time that those Radicals who aim at the destruction of our holy religion, are loud in their complaints against Government for affording me assistance towards establishing it on a permanent foundation in this Province - they are cutting and carving lucrative situations for themselves, and filling the poor pockets, and those of their champion, O'Grady, with your money and that of your fellow subjects. It was for this purpose that they stopped the supplies last session, and thereby prevented the issue of the money, which was to be laid out on public roads, canals, and other improvements of the Province.

and in all those mischiefs your Radical Representatives joined with heart and hand with the enemies of their country. - Montreal Gazette.
Poetry.
SLANDER.
Also: that a desire to prattle,
Should give extended circulation,
To such much unbecoming music,
And so much idle speculation;
And so much round-about abuse,
Just for the sake of spreading news!
Men speak within another's ear,
The note - requires it shall be shown;
But is the first one to decry.
The omnivorous tongue that runs his own;
Which if he'd turn attention to,
He'd always find enough to do.
The face of acts a smiling part,
When malice from the soul proceeds;
To tell the index to the heart,
Of deep designs and darkest deeds,
There's many a handsome well wrapped boot,
Conceals an ugly, cloven foot.
Many in whom we most confide,
Are the least worthy of our trust;
To us our every fault they hide,
But lay us lowly in the dust
With other people - gratitude
Is scarce in this our lusty.
I once thought, when I was quite a young,
All people worthy of my trust,
That truth was spoken by each tongue,
And every religion sacred garb,
I was too soft as a disguise;
An - yet even too soft conceal,
An unfeeling heart of steel.
Sir Francis Head perseveres in the same plain dealing with the people of Upper Canada that has characterized all his measures; the following replies are much to the point, and are good specimens of that variety of those terse hits which His Excellency knows so well how to apply.
Reply of His Excellency the Lieut. Governor to a loyal Address from the Township of St. Andrew.
Gentlemen, - My duties as you have ascribed to me, are "arduous and difficult," and yet the illustration I received from His Majesty are plain and easy - that Upper Canada has been so cruelly deceived by false statements, that the Farmer's interests are neglected, while the agitators of the Province have been reaping a rich harvest.
Gentlemen - I was sent here by His Majesty on purpose to correct the grievances of the country. I see quite clearly who are its enemies; and I declare to you, that if the farmers will assist me, I will assist them.
It is quite certain that I can render this Province powerful assistance; and if you equal it, certain that I have been ordered by His Majesty so to do.
May it please your Excellency, the City of Toronto, have read in your Excellency's answer to the Address of certain Electors of the Home District the following language: - "They (the people of Upper Canada) are perfectly aware that there exist in the Lower Province one or two individuals who inculcate the idea that this Province is about to be disturbed by the interference of foreigners, whose power and whose numbers will prove irresistible. In the name of every Regiment of Militia in Upper Canada, I publicly promulgate, let them come if they dare!" We do not doubt the readiness with which would be answered, upon any emergency, your appeal to the militia, which appeal, we are satisfied, would not have been made without adequate cause.
In a matter so seriously affecting the peace and tranquility of the Country, and the security of its Commerce, we beg to learn from Your Excellency from what quarter the insurrection is alleged to be threatened.
Signed by T. D. MORRISON, Mayor, and a number of the Citizens.
REPLY:
GENTLEMEN - The idea which is culcated by one or two individuals in the Lower Province, that this Province is about to be disturbed by the interference of foreigners, is so notorious to be denied, and I have therefore no further observations to make thereon.
COLONIAL.
Our patriots will doubtless be gratified to learn, that a proposition is now under consideration in England, for promoting Emigration to the Colonies by means of the surplus revenue arising from the Crown Lands, and that Mr. O'Connell is one of the leading promoters of the scheme.
On the 13th May a numerous deputation of Whigmen and gentlemen, of different political parties, amongst whom were the Earl of Devon, Mr. O'Connell, Mr. W. H. Whitmore, Mr. T. P. Courtenay, Mr. H. G. Ward, M. P., Mr. Hunt, M. P., Mr. Angerstein, M. P., Col. Trench, Mr. Ferguson, of Balh, and Mr. Wyse, M. P. had a long interview with Lord Melbourne, to suggest to his lordship the expediency of raising an emigration fund for Ireland by means of the sale of waste lands in the Colonies. The result of the conference was, that an inquiry into the subject would be immediately proposed to Parliament, with the sanction of Government.
