The Halifax Chronicle published New Year's number which is one of the best specimens of progressiv ince. From this issue we republish on our first page an article by F. C Whitman dealing with the lumber in terests of the province, and also quote below Mayor Hoyt's report of the business progress of our town

"Bridgetown has made steady progress during the present year and the outlook for the future is promising About the first of the year the sash and door factory of J. H. Hicks and Sons was burned to the ground and thefirm sustained considerable loss but they have since erected a new factory and their business for the current rear is reported to be the best in the day of each week (Wednesday.) history of the firm. The MacKenzie, Crowe & Co., Ltd., is enlarging its pusiness by the addition of a large building and reports business good There are two vinegar factories in the capacity and their vinegar throughout the Maritim goes to England. Messrs. Beeler and Peters manufacture the stock for and the apple crop of this section of the valley and thus give employment to farmers who supply the raw material. One new industry is that of the Empire Liniment Manufacturing Co., manufacture and sell this liniment and under the able management of Capt. Amos Burns this family remedy is being introduced all over Canada in large quantities. The principal event in town affairs is the addition of the Crosskill Lake to the water supply. Hitherto the supply of water was hardly sufficient to carry the town through a trying drought but now the supply is ample for all demands for many years.
