EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE INHERITANCE OF EMPIRE.

Natal Advertiser: The Empire, most of all, was bequeathed by men who had no mass votes behind them to uphold their hands when weariness overtook them. It was bought by the blood of men working sometimes in twos and threes, sometimes working single-handed, without thought of hope of reward or understanding. It was won by great soulful creatures who put self and aith and race foremost, and who mostly died before their dreams were half accomplished. It was hammered out of the rock, hewn into rough shape, and then chiselled into imperfect form by tollers who steadfastly believed those who came after them would not only cherish but complete the inheritance passed on to them. A democracy born yesterday finds itself in possession of estates won, planted and cultivated by centuries of sacrifice. And what is that democracy going to do with them? Is it going to worry about them at all? Or is it going merely to think how it can fatten on the capital assets, till the world estates over which the flag flies are drained dry or dissipated away like a profligate's patrimony?

TIPHOON.

Springfield Republican: From the Japanese point of view the present issue is grave enough to justify Ambassador Hanibara's warning to our Government despite the technical error in phrasing which made it susceptible of being interpreted as a threat. That the hard-boiled treatment by Congress of so delicate a matter has contributed to the turmoil in the Far East is obvious, and this result is the more unfortunate because collaboration between the United States and Japan is essential to the fruition of American policies in that part of the world and is a logical next step after the abrogation of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty. The Japanese Government still declares itself in favor of co-operation with the United States, but this is obviously made far more difficult by the intense bitterness of Japanese feeling which has needlessly been provoked.

THE GOLDEN BOLD.

Chicago Tribune: Though it is natural for each of us to want as much as any one else has, the way to more for each of us is the way to more for all of us; that is, to increased production of wealth. Measures of forced equalization which check production may bring us nearer to equality, but it will be an equality on a much lower plane than we can all attain if the processes of production are stimulated and the store of total wealth enlarged. We must constantly work for equity in the reward of all human effort. But equality is not equity, nor can it sustain progress. A fair and therefore a wide distribution of wealth is an ideal we ought all to strive to bring about. But the production of wealth is of far greater importance to progress and the welfare of the mass of mankind than any re-arrangement of its distribution. It is in denying or ignoring this basic truth that the radical is in effect the worst of reactionaries.

"HELPLESS FEMALES"

London Daily News: Professor Winifred Cullis hurled a large sized bomb into the midst of the National Council of Women when she admitted that even now, when the emancipation of women in this country is a well accomplished fact, she finds it necessary on occasions to "pose as a helpless female." To suppose that, with the vote, co-educational education and her new spirit of self-reliance and personal independence, Eve has thrown off entirely all the ingenious wiles not peculiar to her sex is to imagine a vain thing. After all, it should be remembered that men, who have asserted an authoritative independence since the beginning of time, have always made use of the subsidiary advantages of their sex virtues and weaknesses to maintain their dubious ascendancy. Women will assuredly continue to do the same, though probably with greater cunning and a wiser caution. If the "helpless female" idea is now completely abandoned, how is one to explain the astounding popularity of novels of the Sheik-in-the-Desert type, unless by the assumption that only men read them?

Here and There

Although it is only 18 years ago that Alberta became a province, its population has increased fourfold, while the grain yield has increased twentyfold. Even at the present low prices, the total agricultural products of Alberta in 1923 were worth $223,000,000.

REPORTS CONCERNING THE APPLE

Reports concerning the apple crop in the Annapolis Valley show that the entire crop, including the estimated local consumption, was 1,216,000 barrels. It is reported that 70,000 apple trees and 8,000 plum trees will be set out in the valley this spring.

THE RAILWAYS OF CANADA

The railways of Canada up to the end of last April earned $6,000,000 more than they did for the corresponding period in 1923. This favorable result is due entirely to the fact that the people have been doing more business. All authorities are agreed that such a condition means growing trade.

NEARLY 68,000 BUSHELS OF HIGH CLASS SEED

were handled at the Alberta government seed-cleaning plant during the past season. A total of 22,523 bushels of Manitoba wheat seed was handled, 3,160 bushels of rye wheat, 23,978 bushels of Victory oats, 17,962 bushels of Banner oats, and 684 bushels of Barke's Barley.

THREE PRIZES FOR ANGLERS

at the bungalow camps on French River, Nipigon River, and the Lake of the Woods, have been offered by the Canadian Pacific Railway. The trophies are silver replicas of the bass and the trout, and a wonderful reproduction of the head of a fighting muskellunge.

AMONG THE SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS

the great convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at London, England, to be held July 14-17, will be E. W. Beatty, J. C. Chalmers and President of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Mr. Beatty will speak on July 17, and has been chosen as his theme "Building an Empire with Advertising."

CANADA'S NATIONAL WEALTH IN 1921

was $22,195,000,000, according to a report just issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. In the tabulation, agricultural wealth comes first with $7,982,871,126, nearly 36 per cent of the total and about 68 per cent of the wealth of the Western provinces. The Yukon topped the list with $4,058. The first in absolute wealth was Ontario which is credited with $7,253,000,000 or thirty-three per cent of the Dominion total.

SHIPPING IN AND OUT OF THE PORT

of Vancouver, B.C., for the calendar year 1923, showed an increase in all departments, according to the annual report of the Board of Harbor Commissioners. Over 1,000,000 worth of goods were exported, an increase of 250,000,000 over the value of the 1922 exports, while the imports totalled $224,000,000, an increase of 113,000,000 over the 1922 figures. Vessels numbering 19,605, representing a total of 8,271,583 net tons, entered and left the port in 1923, an increase over 1922 of 2,800 ships and 702,280 tons.

A PARTY OF 200 CANADIAN WEEKLY

Newspaper Editors and their wives sailed for Europe on Tuesday, 11th aboard the Canadian Pacific steamship "Melita." The party will visit the battle-fields of France and Belgium, seeing most important points in those countries, including Brussels and Paris and will be received by King Albert. Later, they will tour England and Scotland and are to be presented to the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace on Dominion Day. Returning on the Canadian Pacific steamship "Montserrat," they will visit Belfast where Sir Robert Balfour, head of the Belfast Telegraph, will entertain them. They dock at Quebec on August 4th.

THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT

(HEADED) BRIGADE. The Toronto Globe published the following "with apologies to Tennyson, Longfellow, Shakespeare, Billy Sunday, Mackenzie King and all the other notable poets in our class."

BOBBED HAIR TO THE RIGHT OF US,

Bobbed hair to the left of us, Bobbed hair behind us, Tresses assundered. Some with a heavy crop, Some with a light crop, Into the barber shop, Walked the six hundred.

WOMEN OF HIGH DEGREE,

Women of past fifty-three, Determined that they shall be. One of the six hundred, Girls not yet out of 'teens, Girls who that age have seen, Joined the bobbed hundreds.

WOMEN OF EVERY CLASS,

Mother, daughter, little lass, Sweetheart, sister, join the mass, Of the bobbed hair throng. Clerk, stenographer, hello girl, Everyone caught in the whirl, No longer wear their hair long. Some with bangs, and some without, Some are shingled round about, Some in curls, and some in doubt. In case they may have blundered, Some of them do look real swell, Some of them do look like well. It's sometimes just not well to tell, How looks the bobbed six hundred.

FREED OF RHEUMATISM BY FRUIT TREATMENT.

"Be good enough to publish for the information of Rheumatism sufferers how 'Fruit-a-tives' relieved my rheumatism which had at least five years' standing. 'The trouble was in my right hip and shoulder, the pain almost unendurable. This kept up until I started to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. After a continuous treatment for about six months, I am now in first-class condition. This, I attribute to my persistent use of 'Fruit-a-tives'. This is the letter which Mr. James Dobson of Bronte, Ont., wrote after trying the wonderful Fruit Treatment—'Fruit-a-tives'—which consists of intensified fruit juices combined with tonic. If you suffer with Rheumatism, 'Fruit-a-tives' will make you well and keep you well. 25c. and 50c. a box—at dealers or sent by 'Fruit-a-tives' Limited, Ottawa, Ont."
