THE CANADIAN BREEDER

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER has a large circulation in the United States and is a valuable power to all farmers.—Democrat, Washington, D. C.—Feb. 11, 1885.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER AND AGRICULTURAL REVIEW is a new journal published in Toronto. The destiny of Ontario is to become a stock-yard for England, and a journal in the special interest of stock breeders must be of great use.—Bohayan Independent—Sept. 25, 1884.

One of the very best live stock publications that comes to our table is the CANADIAN BREEDER, of Toronto. It is published weekly, and contains matter of great interest, written with much thought and ability.—Colorado Live Stock Record—Feb. 18, 1885.

AGRICULTURAL PAPER.—THE CANADIAN BREEDER AND AGRICULTURAL REVIEW, published weekly in Toronto at $2 a year, is a well printed and high class agricultural paper. A thorough making a specialty of cattle breeding, it covers as well every department of agriculture, and its articles are crisp, plain and useful.—St. John, N. B. Globe—Dec. 5, 1884.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER is the title of a new journal published in Toronto. S. Beatty is the manager of this paper and it makes its visits weekly for the small sum of $2 a year. We like it well, and send our kind regards to its worthy manager. May it live long to help on the stock and farming interests of Canada.—Law and Order Advocate, Belleville—Sept. 1884.

A new candidate for public patronage appears in the CANADIAN BREEDER. A sixteen page paper devoted to the interests of the farmer and stock-breeder. The editor evidently is thoroughly conversant with his duties, and every issue contains instructive and interesting matter. It is published weekly at Toronto, Can. da. for $2 per annum.—Spirit of the Farm, Nashville, Tenn.—Oct. 22, 1884.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER comes to hand looking bright and promising for the new year. It contains a large amount of good reading put up in a style calculated to command the symmetrical of the class for whom it is intended. The BREEDER was wanted, which fact, coupled with the business-like way in which it is conducted, would seem to indicate that our contemporary has "come to stay."—The Week, Toronto—Jan. 8, 1885.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER AND AGRICULTURAL REVIEW, published at Toronto, Canada, is one of the best papers of its class published in Canada, or any other country. Its live stock department, especially, is ably edited and the low price of $2 per year for a sixteen page weekly should insure for it an immense circulation.—Western Sportsman and Live Stock News, Indianapolis, Ind.—Nov. 1, 1884.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER AND AGRICULTURAL REVIEW, Toronto, Vol. 1, No. 7. The artistic and mechanical appearance of the paper are excellent, and evidence of ability is seen throughout the editorials and elections. We believe it to be just such a paper as the live-stock breeders of Ontario need, and it should meet their favorable acceptance. It is a weekly. Price, $200 per annum.—Director, Norwalk, Ohio—Nov. 1884.

Farmers and breeders throughout the country will find in the new publication called THE CANADIAN BREEDER AND AGRICULTURAL REVIEW, information especially designed for them. The journal is issued under the management of Mr. Samuel Beatty. It has been most favorably noticed by the press, and has met with general acceptance at the hands of the agricultural community.—Toronto Telegram—Sept. 24, 1884.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER AND AGRICULTURAL REVIEW is a new publication for favor among farmers and breeders of all kinds of stock. The initial number, which has reached our table, is a bright, 16 page weekly, full of live matter pertaining to stock. The journal is published at Toronto, and if future numbers fulfill the energetic promise of the first, it should meet with success.—Farmer and Dairyman, Syracuse, N.Y.—Sept. 19, 1884.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER is the title of a new weekly periodical published in Toronto, and sustained by the capital and editorial ability of men prominent in live stock circles. In typographical style and in general appearance the paper is surpassed by few stock journals either on this continent or in Europe, and the character of the contents of the initial number promises that the journal will occupy a good position among its competitors.—Toronto Globe—13th Sept., 1884.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER is the title of a new weekly Live Stock Journal which has found its way to our table. It is a sixteen page quarto in form is well made up, finely printed, and full of interesting selections and contributions, lacks no editorial ability or experience to make it a success. It takes at once the front rank with the best of its class of journals on this side of the border. The publication office is Toronto, and the subscription price is $200 per year.—Empire State Agriculturist, Rochester Oct., 1884.

THE CANADIAN BREEDER AND AGRICULTURAL REVIEW is the name of a new publication issued weekly at Toronto under the management of Mr. S. Beatty, a veteran in journalism. The numbers before us are neatly printed on good paper, and the articles, original and selected, are vigorous and ably written. It is published at $2 per annum, and should have a wide circulation. Copies may be seen at this office, where subscriptions may be left.—Haldimand Advocate—Jan. 30, 1885.
