VOTE OF THANKS TO EDITORS OF DAY STAR.

"That the thanks of this Conference are due, and are hereby tendered, to the Rev. Henry, Melville, and the Rev. Geo. Anderson, joint editors of the Canadian Day Star, for their disinterested efforts in the publication of this monthly magazine. And this Conference beg respectfully to inform the Editors, that the brethren assembled do not only look upon the "Day Star" as a happy and most useful means of exhibiting the gospel in all its "glorious fulness and unfettered freeness," but also as the exponent of the views of the Evangelical Union; and as such pray our heavenly Father to follow it with the outpouring of his Holy Spirit, when it is broadcast monthly over the province, that it may prove instrumental in clearing darkened views of Divine Truth, encouraging to Christians, and successful in saving souls! And further, the members of this Conference pledge themselves to do all in their power to extend the circulation of the Day Star."

Moved by Mr. James Robertson, seconded by Mr. Wyllie.

After some friendly conversation, during which the Rev. H. Melville made allusion to the encouraging nature of his visit to Scotland, it was proposed by the Rev. H. Melville that the conference hold its next meeting, (D. V.), at Guelph, C. W., which motion was unanimously carried. A vote of thanks was then accorded to the members of Albert st. E. U. Church for their kindness and courtesy in giving the use of their chapel to the Conference, and their hospitality to the delegates and others from a distance.

After praise and prayer, the President brought the Conference to a close.
