

appointment as chief was to build a Church at Douglas Lake, and in less than two years a very neat little chapel stood up at a distance of fifty yards from his house a steeple was soon added to the Church, and a four hundred pound Bell placed into it. Douglas Lake was visited by Bishop Durieu in September 1889.

In 1894 a second Church was completed at the