The Illustrated American Publishing Company are issuing a Weekly News Magazine, which in excellence rivals the most artistic periodicals of England, France, and Germany, and surpassing any produced in the United States.

The illustrations are the picturesque chronicling of contemporaneous history: and events of national and universal interest will be represented with a fidelity to detail and a perfection of artistic treatment that will make The Illustrated American a revelation of pictorial literature.

A colored supplement is the most conspicuous but not the most distinctive feature of each number, and fac-simile reproductions of the master-pieces of celebrated painters, in the preparation of which the marvelous discoveries of the art are being employed for the first time in this country. The Illustrated American is designed for the home. In its literary character it is clean, unsectarian, and free from political discussion and heavy debate. The serial novels and short stories are amply illustrated; and all other matter is selected to afford amusement, entertainment and valuable information. The Illustrated American consists of not less than 24 pages (16 x 12), and colored cover, printed in large type on heavy paper. Subscription, $10 a year; single copies, 25 cents.
