

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

The Directors of the Congregational Publishing Company have resolved to issue the CANADIAN INDEPENDENT as a Weekly. The regular weekly issue will begin January 1st, 1879.

This change involves a greatly increased outlay. This the directors expect to be met by a correspondingly increased subscription list.

The price of the Weekly will be the same as for the Monthly—One Dollar per Annum—payable in advance.

We want two thousand NEW SUBSCRIBERS before the New Year.

If all our churches will take it in hand, the work will be easily and speedily done.

We ask that a vigorous and systematic canvass be made in each congregation.

Begin AT ONCE to get up a Club. Do not limit the canvass to members of your own church and congregation. Canvass everybody. Your neighbor will take this paper if you ask him. It is a family paper, and will be a blessing to every home it enters. It will not be difficult to put it into four thousand homes within a few months. Send in the names and money as fast as secured.

Hard as the times are no one can afford to live without a weekly religious newspaper when it can be had for less than two cents per week. Subscribe at once and secure the first number.

SPECIAL OFFER.

We will send the CANADIAN INDEPENDENT and "Scribner's Monthly" to any address in the Dominion one year for $4.00.

We will send the CANADIAN INDEPENDENT and "St Nicholas" one year to any address in the Dominion for $3.00.

Scribner's Monthly, COLEMAN & Co.,

CONDUCTED by J. G. HOLLAND.

The Handsomest Illustrated Magazine in the World.

The American edition of this periodical is more than 70,000 monthly, and it has a larger circulation in England than any other American Magazine. Every number contains about one hundred and fifty pages, and from fifty to seventy-five original wood cut illustrations. Several illustrated articles descriptive of Canadian spots and scenery have recently appeared in its pages, and the Magazine during the coming year will devote much space to matters of special interest to the Canadian public.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1878-79.

"HOWARTH'S," by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of "The Little Lord's," "FORGOTTEN OF AMERICAN POETS." This series will be continued, that of Longfellow appearing in November.

A NEW VIEW OF BRAZIL. Mr. Herbert H. Smith, of Cornell University.

THE "JOHNNY REB" PAPERS, by an "ex-Confederate Soldier," will be among the rarest contributions to SCRIBNER during the coming year.

STUDIES IN THE SIERRAS, by John Muir, the California naturalist.

THE LEADING EUROPEAN UNIVERSITIES.

Among the additional series of papers to appear may be mentioned those on "How shall we Spell?" (two papers by Prof. Lounsbury), "The New South," "Lawn-Planting for Small Places," (by Samuel Parsons, of Flushing), "Canada of Today," "American Art and Artists," "American Archaeology," "Modern Inventions," also, Papers of Travel, History, Physical Science, Studies in Literature, Political and Social Science, Stories, Poems, "Topics of the Time," by Dr. D. J. Holland, Record of New Inventions and Mechanical Improvements, Papers on Education, Decoration, &c., Book Reviews, fresh bits of Wit and Humor, &c., &c.

Terms, $4 a year in advance, 35 cents a number. Subscriptions received by the publishers of this paper, and by all bookellers and postmasters.

ST. NICHOLAS,

SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE
FOR GIRLS AND BOYS

AN IDEAL CHILDREN'S MAGAZINE.

Messrs. SCRIBNER & Co., in 1873, began the publication of ST. NICHOLAS, an Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge as editor. Five years have passed since the first number was issued, and the Magazine has won the highest position. It has a monthly circulation of over 50,000 copies.

It is published simultaneously in London and New York, and the transatlantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American. Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its editor's ideal of best, because her ideal continually outruns it, and the magazine swiftly follows after. To-day ST. NICHOLAS stands alone as THE WORLD OF BOOKS, the New York Tribune has said of it "ST. NICHOLAS has reached a higher platform, and commands for its services wider resources in arts and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries." The London Literary World says: "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of Scribner's press."

GOOD THINGS FOR 1878-9.

"A HOLY FELLOWSHIP," will run through the twelve monthly parts, beginning with the number for November, 1878, the first of the volume.

A continued fairy tale called "THE MYSTERY OF THE TOWER," written by Julia H. Osborne, and illustrated by Alfred Fredericks.

For the girls a continued tale, "HALF A DOZEN HOUSEKEEPERS," by Katharine D. Smith, with illustrations by Frederick Drelman.

"Jack in the Pulpit," the "Very Little Folks," department, and the "Letter-box," and "Kiddie box."

Attention is especially invited to the November number, which in many respects approaches nearer to our ideal than any number we have issued. It contains 72 pages, and its illustrations throughout are fine and varied.

Terms, $3.00 per year, 25 cents a Number.

Subscriptions received by the Publisher of this Paper, and by all Bookellers and Postmasters.
