The New York Turf Field and Farm of July 31st announces the black from this point onwards to act retirement of its veteran checker editor, Mr. Dunlap, and the disconce 18 14 almost wins.—J. Itill. tinuance of the column after twenty five years of service. With his severance from the active world of checkers there disappears austher of those whose efforts have litted the game from obscurity to a popular, intellectual and scientific pastime, and the status to the best 25c. checker book ever pubwhich that pastime has soured in America may be attributed in a great measure to the prominence given to it in the Turf, but quite as much to Mr. Dunlap's own personality. Alto gether the game's history during the past three decades must always be associated with Mr. Dunlap's name. His successor will not easily be found.

If the Checker Editor of the Liver pool, G. B., Mercury will accept fron us a suggestion in the kindly spirit it. which we tender it he will much improve, in our humble opinion, the value of his problems by following our example of inserting besides the diagrams, the numbers on which the pieces are placed. This will be o: service not only to those who like our selves suffer under defective eyesight, but also to others, as the pieces in the diagrams are often so blurred that it is difficult to distin guish blacks from whites and men from kinge.

SOLUTION.

PROBLEM 237.—The position was: black men 4, 7, 10, 14, 23, 24; white men 9, 12, 26, 28, 29, 30, King 19;
Black to play and win.
