

Dr. Michael Steele, M.P. for South Perth, has taken action along the lines of establishing a Dominion Department of Health. He moved a similar notice at the session a year ago.

Lt.-Col. F. W. Marlow has resigned his position as A.D.M.S. of Military District No. 2, Toronto. Charged with responsibility and not sufficient control seem to be the chief reasons.

A short time ago, Sir Robert Borden said in the House that already 10,000 returned soldiers had received treatment under the Military Hospital Commission. The Commission had undertaken to provide vocational training for patients.

Mrs. F. N. G. Starr, honorary treasurer of the University Hospital Supply Association, acknowledges the sum of $5,278.69 received since Oct. 11, 1916. During January, 1917, Mrs. F. B. Kenrich, convener of the packing committee, reports having sent to the Canadian Red Cross Society 41 cases, containing the following articles: pyjamas, 726; socks, 606 pairs; dressing gowns, 40; bed jackets, 24; day shirts, 42; surgical shirts, 144; Scultetus bandages, 66; sheets, 114; pillow cases, 348; towels, 96; miscellaneous articles, 345. In addition 5 cases of socks, each containing 126 pairs, were sent to the Canadian War Contingent Association through the Soldiers' Comforts, 80 King Street west, making a total of 46 cases for the month.

Col. (Dr.) H. G. Barrie has left his home in Kuling, China, for active services at the front. He was twice honored by the Serbian government. He is a former Torontonians, and married a daughter of the late Senator John Macdonald. His wife and three children remain. During the South African War Dr. Barrie did excellent work in organizing the Y.M.C.A. on the battlefield. When in Serbia he contracted typhus fever, and had to return to China for a rest.

Mrs. Langrill, wife of Dr. John A. Langrill, of Hamilton, died at her home there on 9th February, in the 70th year of her age.

Dr. George E. Wilson, who went overseas with the University of Toronto Hospital, was at Malta for some time on sick leave.

Dr. T. M. Brandon, formerly of Walford, has taken the office formerly occupied by Dr. J. B. Martyn, of Alvinston, Ontario.

Drs. R. J. Wilson and K. C. Cairns are home in Toronto on sick leave from the C.A.M.C., England.

Col. J. A. Roberts, Toronto, and Col. H. S. Birkett, Montreal, both in overseas services in the C.A.M.C., have made companions of the Bath.

Dr. George Clingan, Brandon, Manitoba, has been officer commanding of the Canadian Convalescent Hospital at Monks Horton, England.