DON'T.

DON'T swear. Don't desecrate the Lord's day. Don't slander your neighbour. Don't act the hypocrite. Don't be self-righteous. Don't be stingy. Don't read novels. Don't lie. Don't drink. Don't forget your Creator. Don't forget your Bible. Don't think the church will die when you leave it. Don't think you know everything. Don't forget that other people have rights as well as you. Don't forget you may die. Don't forget that character is worth more than money. Don't get weary in well-doing. Don't be idle. Don't "walk in the counsel of the ungodly." Don't "stand in the way of sinners." Don't sit in the seat of the scornful."

A MUDDY stream flowing into one clear and sparkling for a time rolls along by itself. A little farther down they unite, and the whole is impure. So youth, untouched by sin, may for a short time keep its purity in foul company; but a little later and they mingle.

It is a touching story told of a poor Norwegian mother whose baby died in her arms on the train, that unable to speak, she pointed Bishop Whipple to the one word in the Lutheran Prayer-book which expressed volumes—"Jesus' "Wherefore, comfort one another with these words." Unspeakably blessed is the faith in one who is touched with our sorrows and acquainted with our griefs.
