

NEW MUSIC.

DELICE DU COEUR. Instrumental waltz. By Geo. F. Smedley. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto.

This waltz is written for mandolin and guitar, and is quite a king number.

NOW I LAY ME DOWN TO SLEEP. Song by Chas. A. E. Harriss. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 50 cents.

A charming setting of one of Eugene Field's child poems. Suitable for mezzo soprano, range from B flat to E flat.

OUT ON THE STREET. Song by Jas. Fax. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

A "descriptive song" telling of newsboy and shoeblack life.

JOSEPHINE. Song by C. R. Palmer. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto.

A Bowery song with sufficient character about it to merit more than passing attention.

WALTZING WITH THE GIRL YOU LOVE. Song by Arthur Seldon. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

A rather insipid waltz song, which will probably find a few sentimental admirers in some sections of the country.

MAY AND I. Song by A. M. Cohen. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

A popular song with the regulation waltz refrain.

JUST AS I AM. Sacred song by J. E. P. Aldous. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

A sweet and sympathetic setting of this favorite hymn. It is simple and of moderate range. Suitable for mezzo-soprano or baritone. (C sharp to E).

A BRIGAND BOLD. Song by Charles A. E. Harriss. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 60 cents.

This is a more than usually interesting number for baritone. It is somewhat difficult, and will require a capable singer to handle the effects which are to be found in its pages.

ONLY FOR THREE. Song by Hastings Weblyn. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

A pretty little song published in two keys, D and F. The melody and sentiment are good, the style being generally pleasing.

A FOUNT OF MUSIC. Song. Words by James Russell Lowell. Music by J. Lewis Browne. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 50 cents.

A charming composition written in excellent style, with abundance of color and feeling. Published in two keys, F (D to G), and D.

THE GLOBE FIRE. Song by A. C. Lawrence and W. A. Newton. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

This song recalls the burning of The Globe building. Neither the words nor music are distinguished by much character.

SONG OF THE SOUTHERN MAIDEN. Song by Albert Nordheimer. A. & S. Nordheimer, Toronto. 50 cents.

The former compositions of this well-known publisher have always met with much success, and this little contribution will make many friends. It is simple in style, and of medium range (C to F), and has many points to commend it to favorable notice.

UNDER THE STANDARD. Song. Words by Clifton Bingham. Music by Charles A. E. Harriss. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 50 cents.

A capital song for baritone. It is bold and hearty with a patriotic ring in it that will make it a song of the time. It has been sung by the famous artist, Watkin Mills.

THE DISSOLUTION OF GEORGE ROUTLEDGE'S SONS.

Application has been made in the Supreme Court for the dissolution of the New York corporation of George Routledge's Sons, book publishers, formerly of No. 9 Lafayette place, by Directors F. A. Sliney, Richard F. Leask, Thomas Eldershaw and Diedrich J. Winckelmann, and an order to show cause has been set down for April 14, and Daniel P. Ingraham has been appointed referee in the matter. The company was incorporated in July, 1894, with a capital stock of $240,000, succeeding to the business of George Routledge & Sons, of London. The application is merely for the purpose of legally winding up the company as a separate concern, the entire business having been sold to G. W. Routledge & Sons, of London, who continue the business as a branch of the London house.

are debt and difficulty, difficulty and debt—they are inseparable. We need not discuss their causes here, either. What we want to point out is that no man with a family, or with large business interests at stake, should neglect life insurance. Stick to the policy you have, and when you want more insurance see one of our agents about it, or call in at Head Office. No medical examination is required for our pension.
