THE Illustrated Christian Weekly.

Will continue to merit in claim of its title to be the "handiest illustrated paper in the world." New points of interest men and to those already given. Procter, Spurgeon, Long, Macdonald and others, are in preparation. Religious work at home and abroad, social and domestic life, scenery and other lands, events of the day, are among the topics which will be illustrated in the best manner by our artists as Darley, Herick, Beard, Dixon, and others. Each number of the paper will contain seven or more finely executed engravings. In the literary department, Dr. C. S. Robinson, whose original sketches have been an acceptable feature of the paper the present year, will furnish a new series, descriptive of life and customs in the East. On the conclusion of John S. C. Abbott's fascinating "History of William the Conqueror" other historical sketches from the same master pen will be forthcoming. S. E. Todd will give us designs of medium-sized houses, and show how to build them cheaply. Contributions may also be expected from Rev. Drs. Theodore L. Carter, Howard Crosby, J. G. Cranley, W. C. Hamilton, J. E. Rankin, Prof. A. Baird and W. L. Wilkinson, Jacob Abbott, A. L. Noble, Mrs. E. L. Deers, Mrs. A. E. Harr, Mrs. M. E. Miller, Mrs. M. A. Denton, and other popular writers. TWELVE PAGES WEEKLY. TWO DOLLARS A YEAR. The Cheapest Family Paper in the World. Agents Wanted. Specimen copies free. AMERICAN TRACT SOC., Publishers, 150 Nassau Street, New York.
