

PROVINCIAL REGISTER.

On Monday 7th inst. the following Address was presented to His Excellency the Governor in Chief.

To His Excellency the Right Honorable GUY LORD DORCHESTER, Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and their Dependencies, Vice Admiral of the same, General and Commander in Chief of all His Majesty's Forces in the said Provinces, and the Island of Newfoundland, &c. &c. &c.

May it please Your Lordship,

WE the Inhabitants of the City and Banlieu of Montreal, beg leave humbly to present our most sincere Congratulations upon the safe arrival of Your Lordship and Family in this Province.

Your Lordship's long residence in this Colony, Your intimate knowledge of its Interests, and your constant desire, during the whole course of Your Government, to promote whatever might be conducive to its prosperity, are the best proofs which we can receive of His Majesty's paternal regard for His faithful Subjects in this remote quarter of His Dominions.

We further humbly beg leave to offer to Your Lordship our most sincere wishes for Your Health and domestic Happiness, and that You may long exercise Your mild and equitable Government over these Colonies.

Montreal, 30th Sept. 1793.

To which His Lordship was pleased to make the following Answer.

To the Inhabitants of the City and Banlieu of Montreal :

Gentlemen,

I thank you for your Address of Congratulation, on my return to this Province, and am happy in this opportunity of assuring you that I shall always think it my duty, by every means in my power, to promote the general interests and prosperity of the Inhabitants of your City and its Dependencies, as well as those of every other part of the King's Governments committed to my care.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY ALURED CLARKE, Esquire,
Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Lower Canada, Major General, late commanding His MAJESTY'S Forces in North America, &c. &c.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Inhabitants of Montreal, understanding Your Excellency is about to depart for Great-Britain, beg leave to offer you our warmest Wishes for a speedy and safe Voyage.

Exercising, as you did, the executive Government of this Country at the commencement of a new Constitution, and in the infancy of legislation under it; the situation was peculiarly delicate and interesting: Your Excellency's
