

spot, because he very knowingly said she had subdued her stichfulness. Marion was not displeased with for this innocent rillery. On the contrary, she felt a secret pleasure in it. But as women are never behindhand, she had her revenge on her brother, in saying to him, 'It is to be hoped, that one day my brother will become a despot, when he shall have the power of getting rid of mischievous tricks, which attend him like so many satellites.'

The mouth of the Amazon is large enough to take in the States of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. 'Suppose it should do it,' kindly suggests a Richmond paper.

The finest friend I ever knew, and one with whom I dare not trifle; who in all danger sees me through whose aim is ever good and true, is my sweet Minnie Rifle! She generally rests upon my arm, is always ready always willing. And though in general somewhat calm, wakes up upon the first alarm to show she can be killing. And she is very fair to see, the most fastidious lady suting; her locks are bright as can be; and that her sight is good, to me is just as sure as shooting. The heaviest lead appears not to weigh more on her than 'twere a trifle. She's polished; and I'd pray, were I bereft of friends this day, 'Oh, leave me Minnie Rifle!'

The BAMBOO IN CHINA.—This useful and beautiful plant, being applied by the Chinese to such a vast variety of purposes, may justly be called their national plant. It is cultivated about villages for its shade and beauty, no plant giving so rural and pleasing an appearance to a garden or village as the clumps of this graceful and stately grass, and a grove furnishes from year to year culms of all sizes for the various uses to which the plant is applied. The stalks shoot up in many places to the height of fifty feet or more, and, swaying with every breeze, form an object of rare elegance. It is sared from shoots and suckers; but, once rooted it requires little after attention. There are sixty varieties of the Bamboo mentioned by Chinese writers, all of which are useful in some way.

China could hardly be governed without the constant application of the bamboo, nor the people get along in their daily purposes without it. The tender shoots are cultivated for food, being boiled, pickled and comfited. The roots are carved into all manner of images; cut into lantern-handles, and cases.—The tapering culms are used for all purposes to which poles can be applied: for the joists of houses and the ribs of sails; the shafts of spears and the wickets of hurdles; the tubes of aqueducts and the handles and ribs of umbrellas and fans. Its leaves are made into cloaks, shingles, and matting; cut into splinters of various sizes, the wood is worked into baskets and trays of every imaginable pattern, twisted into cables, made into awnings, mats for stage scenery, roofs of boats, and the casing of goods. Mattresses are stuffed with its shavings. It furnishes for the Chinaman his bed, his couch, his knife and fork, or chopsticks, his pipe, his flute; a curtain to hang before his door, and a broom to sweep around it;—together with screens, stools, stands and sofas. The ferns to govern the scholar, and the book he studies, both originate here. The tapering barrels of the gun or organ, and the dreaded instrument of the licitor— one producing harmony, and the other notes somewhat more discordant—the hair-pin, the hat; the paper to write on, the pencil handle to write with, and the cap to hold the pencils; the carpenter's rule, the gauger's cap, and the well bucket, the bellows and the match-bottle; the bird-cage and crab net; the fishing-rod, the water-wheel and eave-trough, wheelbarrow and hand-cart, etc., are each and all furnished by this magnificent grass, whose graceful beauty when growing is only equalled by its varied usefulness when cut down.

The following is an amusing account of the way a farmer was taught how cheaply he could take the paper. The lesson is worth pondering by a good many men 'we wot of.'

You have hens at home, of course. Well I will send you my paper for one year, for the products of a single hen for one season, and the proceeds. It seems trifling, preposterous, to imagine the products of a single hen will pay a subscription; perhaps it won't, but I make the offer.

'Done,' exclaimed farmer, 'I agree to it,' and appeared to me as witness of the affair. The farmer went off apparently much elated with his conquest; the editor went on his way rejoicing.

Time rolled around, the world revolved on its axis and the sun moved in its orbit as it formerly did; the farmer received his paper regularly, and regaled himself with the information from it, and said he was surprised at the progress of himself and family in general information.

Some time in the month of September, I happened to be up again in the office, when who should enter but our friend farmer B.

'How do you do, Mr. B.?' said the editor, extending his hand, his countenance lit up with a bland smile; take a chair and be seated, fine weather we have.'

'Ye'er sir, quite fine indeed,' he answered, and then a short silence ensued, during which our friend B. hunched his thumbs abstractedly and spit profusely. Starting up quickly, he said, addressing the editor, 'Mr. D., I have brought you the proceeds of that hen.'

It was amusing to see the peculiar expression of the editor, as he followed the farmer down to the wagon I could hardly keep my risibles down.

When at the wagon the farmer commenced handing over to the editor the products amounting to eighteen quarts, worth 12 1/2 cents each, and a number of dozens of eggs, making in the aggregate, at the least calculation, one dollar and fifty cents more than the price of the paper.

No need to say he, 'of men not taking a family newspaper, and paying for it too, I don't miss this from my roof, yet I have paid for a year's subscription and over. All folly sir; there is no man but what can take a newspaper; it is charity you know commenced at home.'

'But,' resumed the editor, 'I will pay for what is over the subscription, I did not intend this as a means of profit, but rather to convince you I will pay.'— 'Not a bit of it, sir; a bargain is a bargain and I am already paid sir—doubly paid, sir. And whenever a neighbor makes the complaint I did, I will relate to him the hen story. Good day, gentlemen.'

A good word is as easily spoken as a bad one. A merchant died suddenly after writing a letter to one of his correspondents. His clerk wrote at the bottom, 'Since writing the above I have died,' and sent the letter.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.

The following is an extract from a letter written by the Rev. U. Z. Weizer, to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Penna.—

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our 'Susy' to say, 'A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow; for helping her to survive and escape the gripping, colicking, and teething sieges. We confirm every word set forth in the Prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. Away with your 'Cordial,' 'Paregoric,' 'Drops,' 'Laudanum,' and every other 'Narcotic,' by which the babe is drugged into stupidity and rendered dull and idiotic for life.

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her 'Soothing Syrup for Children Teething.' If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the Infant Race. 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Be sure and call for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP."

All others are base and dangerous imitations. February, 1867. 2m

SICKNESS THAT HAS NO NAME.—Thousands suffer, who have no specific disease. They are apathetic and listless, eat without relish, sleep without being refreshed, and are miserable without any tangible cause. A sluggish digestion, a semi-torpid liver, inactive bowels—are responsible for these indescribable, but not the less real and annoying ailments. To restore the inert organs to healthful activity, they have only to resort to BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS. Dr. Benjamin Wallis, of Boston, Mass., gives it as his opinion, that 'there is nothing comparable to them, in cases where there is a lack of vital energy in the stomach and its dependencies, and general weakness and depression are apparent, without any distinctly-marked form of disease.' All who suffer from physical prostration, accompanied by low spirits, will find BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS of immense benefit.

They are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills. 425 J. F. Henry & Co. Montreal, General Agents for Canada. For sale in Montreal by Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, Picanit & Son, J. Goulden, R. S. Latham and all Dealers in Medicine.

THE SCOURGE OF TROPICAL COUNTRIES.—Liver complaint, in some form or other, is all but universal in warm climates. In tropical America, prior to the introduction of BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, it paralyzed the energies, ruined the constitutions, and shortened the lives of tens of thousands of both sexes. But a great sanitary revolution is now in progress there. Blue pill, iron, and many other ancient nostrums have been abandoned, and demulcent, restoring the vigor, and saving the lives of multitudes of hopeless patients. There is no form of biliousness acute or chronic, that it will not cure. BRISTOL'S VEGETABLE PILLS, the great cure for all diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels, should be used at some time in moderate doses. 513 Agents for Montreal, Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, R. Gray Picanit & Son, J. Goulden, R. S. Latham and all Dealers in Medicine.

A PERPETUAL DELIGHT.—'Flowers have their time to fade,' says a favorite poet; but in MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER their sweetness is made perpetual. The odor of other toilet-waters becomes faint and insipid after a brief exposure to the air. It is not so with this exquisite floral preparation. Its perfume is fixed and permanent.—Hang a handkerchief that has been moistened with it in the breeze for days, and the aroma will be as delicate and refreshing at the end of the time as if the fluid has just fallen upon its threads. This is not the case with any foreign extract, nor with any other American perfume.

Purchasers are requested to see that the words "Florida Water, Murray & Lanman, No. 69 Water Street, New York," are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine.

AGUA DE MAGNOLIA.—The prettiest thing, the "sweetest thing," and the most of it for the least money. It overcomes the odor of perspiration; softens and adds delicacy to the skin; it is a delightful perfume; allays headache and inflammation, and is a necessary companion in the sick room, in the nursery and upon the toilet sideboard. It can be obtained everywhere at one dollar per bottle. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling.—They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 4th street. Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of New York. It is said that Drake painted all the rocks in the Eastern States with his cabalistic "S. T.—1860.—X." and then got the old grumpy legislators to pass a law "preventing disgusting the face of nature," which gives him a monopoly. We do not know how this is, but we do know the Plantation Bitters sell as no other article ever did. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating when languid and weak, and a great appetizer. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

"In lifting the kettle from the fire I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. The Mexican Mustang Liniment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar. CHAS. FOSTER, 420 Broad St., Philadelphia." This is merely a sample of what the Mustang Liniment will do. It is invaluable in all cases of wounds, swellings, sprains, cuts, bruises, epavins, etc., either upon man or beast. Beware of counterfeits. None is genuine unless wrapped in fine steel-plate engravings, bearing the signatures of G. W. Westbrook, Chemist, and the private stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co., New York. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

All who value a beautiful head of hair, and its preservation from premature baldness and turning gray, will not fail to use Lyons celebrated Mustard. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy, eradicates dandruff, and causes the hair to grow with luxuriant beauty. It is sold everywhere. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

What Did I do?—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, flushed, and red, she had a soft, rosy complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 23, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagar's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. It can be ordered of any druggist; for only 50 cents. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

Heimstreet's Inimitable Hair Coloring has been steadily growing in favor for over twenty years. It acts upon the absorbents at the roots of the hair, and changes it to its original color by degrees. All instantaneous dyes denude and injure the hair. Heimstreet's is not a dye, but is certain in its results, promotes its growth, and is a beautiful Hair Dressing. Price 50 cents and $1. Sold by all dealers. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for Indigestion, Nauseas, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, &c., where a warming is required. Its careful preparation and entire purity makes it a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold every where, at 50 cents per bottle. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE Pain Killer cures Sudden Colds, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Affections, Toothache, Sick Headache, Frost Bites, Kidney Complaints, Old Sores, Throat Affections, Diphtheria, General Debility, Diarrhoea, Pain in Stomach, Cholera, Scalds and Burns, Sprains, Bruises. This long tested and unrivalled Family Medicine has been favorably known for about thirty years, during which time we have received thousands of testimonials proving it to be an almost never failing remedy for the above named complaints. It has been tested in every variety of climate and in almost every known portion of the globe. The missionary, the sailor and the soldier find it an inestimable friend, and the millions of bottles sold yearly are its best and strongest recommendation. The great reputation the Pain Killer has won for itself has induced others to imitate and counterfeit it to a great extent. We should caution all purchasers against these imitations either in name or style of putting up such as Pain Destroyer, Pain Reliever, Pain Kings, Pain Remedy, &c., &c. Country Merchants and Druggists purchase these worthless preparations for one half the price of the genuine Pain Killer, yet charge the public the same as for the genuine, hence their object in urging these worthless preparations on the public. Send for a Pain Killer Almanac and Receipt Book for 1867 gotten up with the greatest care and contains, aside from numerous testimonials, &c., of the Pain Killer, a very valuable collection of Domestic Receipts. The Pain Killer is sold everywhere by all Druggists and Country Store-keepers. PRICE, 15 cts., 25 cts. and 50 cts. per bottle. Orders should be addressed to PERRY DAVIS & SON, Manufacturers and Proprietors, Montreal, C.E.
