

News Items

DR. LORNE L. STAUFFER, of Waterloo, has decided to locate in Newton.

DR. J. D. MCKAY, Marion, Ind., Trinity '95, was in Toronto the latter part of August.

THE management of the St. John, N.B., General Hospital will erect additions to the extent of $20,000.

DR. GEORGE HODGE, London, Ont., has been appointed local examiner at that city for the Gravenhurst Sanitarium.

DR. FRANK NEAL, Walton, Ont., has gone to the Old Country to take special courses in the leading colleges and hospitals.

DR. J. H. O'NEILL, of Brampton, has located for practice in Paisley, and opened an office on Queen Street, next to the Hanna House.

DR. JOHN CLARK, Smithport, Pa., McGill '91, paid the Managing Editor a visit during the last week of the Dominion Exhibition.

DR. C. H. MCDUGALL, a rising young medical man of Caradoc, has gone to the Old Country, where he will take a course in London hospitals.

DR. C. F. TREW, late professor of pathology and bacteriology in the medical department of the Western University, London, has accepted a similar position in the Indianapolis State Asylum for the Insane.

DR. COLLVER, of Otterville, reports a serious outbreak of typhoid fever in South Norwich township. An examination of the water showed that it was subjected to contamination from sewage for a long time.

DR. NORTON, Shelburne, has formed a partnership with Dr. A. T. Steele, the firm name to be Norton & Steele. Dr. Steele is a graduate of Toronto University and the Society of the Lying-in Hospital, New York, and after graduating was appointed resident physician at St. Joseph's Hospital, Paterson, N.J. He has latterly been practising at Arva, near London.