Mercantile Summary.

MESSRS. THOS. GRIFFITH & Co., wholesale grocers, of Toronto, have sold out their business to Mr. Wm. Griffith, who, it is stated, intends to wind up his brother's estate.

THE FIRM of Messrs. Brown, Gillespie & Co. of Hamilton has undergone a change of personnel, Mr. Gillespie having withdrawn. The style of the new firm is Brown, Routh & Co.

WE HEAR that the tobacco manufactory of Messrs. Hugh Wallace & Co. has been removed to Hamilton, where the manufacture will be under the management of Mr. F.
Schwartz, who is now a partner. The firm still retain an office here.

AT A meeting of the Canadian creditors of H.
J. Morse & Co. held in the Rossin House last week a statement of the firm's business and position here was submitted, showing liabilities of about $32,000. With a view to settlement a committee was appointed consisting of Col.
Shaw, Mr. Pridham and Mr. D. Thurston, to examine into the position of affairs and report to a future meeting at an early date.
