

WILLIAM DUTTON, of the Township of Vespra, County of Simcoe, Miller, for "a new and useful system of dressing Mill-Stones, called The Auxiliary Mill-Stone Dress."—Dated 25th October, 1864.

DAVID JOHNS, of the Village of Exeter, County of Huron, Tin-Smith, for "a new and useful Machine for Moulding Eave-Troughs."—Dated 26th October, 1864.

JOHN ASKEW, of the Township of Raleigh, County of Kent, Mill-Wright, for "a Cast-Iron Arm to apply to Wrought-Iron Axle-Trees."—Dated 26th October, 1864.

WILLIAM W. RICHARDSON, of the City of Hamilton, County of Wentworth, Merchant, for "the Magic Self-Compressing Clothes Wringing Machine."—Dated 9th November, 1864.

EDWIN ROBLIN, of the Township of Sophiasburgh, County of Prince Edward, Machinist, for "a new and useful Churn Power."—Dated 9th November, 1864.

STEPHEN WASHBURN, of the Township of South Dumfries, County of Brant, Mechanic, for "an improved Portable Fence, called the Portable Picket Worm Fence."—Dated 15th November, 1864.

JOHN HANFORD, the younger, of the Town of Windsor, County of Essex, Mill-Wright, for "an improved Saw-Setter, to be known as Hanford's Saw-Setter."—Dated 18th November, 1864.

JOSEPH VAN NORMAN, of the Township of Dereham, County of Oxford, Iron-Founder, for "a new and useful improvement in the construction of furnaces for the melting of metals, and in the art of melting metals therein, to be known as Joseph Van Norman's improved Furnace for the Melting of Metals."—Dated 18th November, 1864.

JESSE WEAVER, of the Township of Malahide, County of Elgin, Farmer, and ROBERT W. RULE, of the same place, Machinist, for "a Ditching Machine."—Dated 19th November, 1864.

HENRY FRYATT, of the Village of Aurora, Township of Whitchurch, County of York, Carpenter, for "an improved Sawing Machine."—Dated 21st November, 1864.

FRANKLIN P. GOOLO, of the Town of Brantford, County of Brant, Potter, for "a new and useful improved Churn and Butter-Worker."—Dated 21st November, 1864.

SAMUEL LAMBERT, of the City of Kingston, County of Frontenac, Mechanic, for "a new and useful Rail-Joint Fastening for Railways."—Dated 22nd November, 1864.

WILLIAM PARSON, the younger, of the City of Toronto, County of York, Oil-Refiner, for "a new and useful machine for forcing oil and water from the bottom of wells, and water from mines, to be called and known as Parson's Oil Ejector."—Dated 22nd November, 1864.

JAMES COLLINS, of the Town of Guelph, County of Wellington, Machinist for "an improved Self-Delivering Attachment for Reaping Machines."—Dated 22nd November, 1864.

EDWARD BEANES, of the City of Toronto, County of York, Gentleman, for "a new and useful Process for improvements in the Preparing or treating of Animal Charcoal."—Dated 24th November, 1864.

RICHARD CHARLES HONEY, of the Village of Newtonville, in the Township of Clarke, County of Durham, Coach Builder, for "a new and useful improved Wheel-Hub."—Dated 24th November, 1864.

ALEXANDER ANDERSON, of the City of London, County of Middlesex, Machinist, for "a new and useful Straw-Cutter, to be called and known as Anderson's Straw-Cutter."—Dated 28th November, 1864.

GEORGE LACEY DARLING, of the Town of Simcoe, in the County of Norfolk, Jeweller, "a new and useful machine, to be called and known as Darling's Lever Power and Vertical Sawing Machine."—Dated 29th November, 1864.

FLAVIUS GUSTAVUS GOODWIN, of the Township of Dereham, County of Oxford, Yeoman, for "an improved Seed Drill."—Dated 9th December, 1864.

JOHN S. ROBINSON, of the City of London, County of Middlesex, Oil Refiner, for "a new and useful Currier's Oil."—Dated 10th December, 1864.

THOMAS ROBSON, of the Town of Brantford County of Brant, Miller, for "a new and useful Flour-Drier, to be called the Steam Flour-Drier."—Dated 10th December, 1864.

HENRY CARTER, of the Township of Malahide, County of Elgin, Blacksmith, for "a new and useful Hydrostatic Engine."—Dated 10th December, 1864.

HERVEY KILLAM, of the Village of Waterford, County of Norfolk, Mechanic, for "a new and useful Mouldboard for Ploughs."—Dated 10th December, 1864.

JAMES E. MITCHEL, of the Town of Paris, County of Grant, Machinist, "a new and useful matching machine, to be called and known as Mitchel's non-parallel Matching Machine."—Dated 10th December, 1864.

JOHN MCARTHUR, of the Village of Fergus, in the County of Wellington, Blacksmith, "a new and useful Mouldboard."—Dated 10th December, 1864.

WILLIAM VAHEY, the younger, of the Village of Arkona, in the County of Lambton, Gentleman, "an improved Weather Strip."—Dated 20th December, 1864.

(List of Patents issued by the Patent Office from the 1st January 1865, to the 28th February 1865.)

CHARLES LA MAIN, of the Township of Hamilton, in the County of Northumberland, Yeoman, for "a new and useful double-mouldboard drilling Plough."—Dated 10th January, 1865.

JOSEPH PARADIS, of the City of Montreal, Machinist, for "a new and useful Press for compressing hay, cotton, tobacco, &c., &c."—Dated 16th January, 1865.

CORNELIUS RYAN, of the City of Montreal, Tinsmith, for "a new and useful improvement in stoves and heating apparatus."—Dated 16th January, 1865.

RICHARD S. HUNTER, of the Township of Stanstead, in the District of St. Francis, Gentleman, for "a new and useful metallic Threshold and our side door attachment."—Dated 16th January, 1865.

JAMES HOBBS, of the Township of Batiscan, in the District of Arthabaska, Civil Engineer, for "a new and useful machine for manufacturing fuel from peat, for excavating canals, and for other purposes."—Dated 16th January, 1865.

RUFUS THOMAS MONROE WELLS, of the Township of Stanbridge, in the District of Redford, Doctor of Medicine, for "a new and useful machine for starting cars."—Dated 16th January, 1865.

JOSHUA CRAWFORD, of the City of Toronto, in the County of York, Gentleman, for "an Abdominal Supporter."—Dated 17th January, 1865.