

Re Industrial Exhibition.

The Pelee Island Vineyards, of Pelee Island, Lake Erie, the most southern point in Canada, made a very fine display of their grapes, grown in the open air, and wines made from the same, at the Industrial Exhibition. Their display of grapes comprised over sixty exhibits, and was the great leading feature of the Horticultural Hall. At the request of the Commissioner of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition in the fruit department, Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co., of Brantford, the sole agents for Canada for the Pelee Island Vineyards, have sent to London, England, a magnificent display from their exhibit here. It comprised thirteen varieties, and should of itself convince the most sceptical, that Canada takes a front rank as a fruit-growing country. The Pelee Island Vineyard have this year placed their wines at the following reasonable prices:—In 5 gal. lots $1.50; 10 gal. lots, $1.40; 20 gal. lots, $1.30; 40 gal. lots, $1.25; cases 1 doz. quarts, $1.50; cases 2 doz. pints, $5.50 f.o.b., at Brantford. The judges, appreciating the excellence of Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co.'s exhibit of grapes and wines, awarded them one of the highest awards given this year, viz., a silver medal. A gentleman who has travelled extensively over the wine-growing countries of Europe expressed the opinion: "If the Pelee Island vineyards produce such wine as this, how can foreign wines be imported and successfully compete?" It may be mentioned that Pelee Island is the most southern point in Canada, and that the vineyards cover over two hundred acres. Their brands are for sale by the principal wine merchants throughout the Dominion.—Toronto Telegram.

Is an illustrated historical monthly, founded in 1877, wherein the stirring incidents of the past are treated in a captivating as well as authentic manner. To the public libraries it has become an absolute necessity; colleges and schools in every part of the land are learning its value in the instruction and culture of their pupils.

It is one of the best of household journals, and it has the largest circulation of any magazine of its character in the world. It has grown remarkably prosperous during the past year, and is now prepared to extend its usefulness to every quarter of the country, and to foreign lands. It will continue to offer

A MOONLIGHT BOY. E. W. Howe's new novel (with portrait of author, $1.50) is a marvellous romance of western character, preferred by many critics to the same author's "The Story of a Country Town." "Rich humour—very fascinating—rare charm."—Christian Union. "There may be discerned a certain parallel between Howe and Toussaint—fascinating simplicity—a genuinely good novel."—N. Y. Tribune. "The realistic writer of America, the Zola without vulgarity."—Church Union.

A ROMANTIC YOUNG LADY. Robert Grant's latest novel ($1.50) is generally said to suggest and surpass his "Confessions of a Fashionable Girl." Firm, strong, bright, amusing."—N. Y. Home Journal. "In his very best manner. The best thing he has done."—N. Y. Com. Adv. "The best that he has written."—N. Y. Sun.

GENIUS IN SUNSHINE AND SHADOW ($1.50) is an admirable book by Maturin M. Ballou, whose recent treasury of quotations, "Edge Tools of Speech," has met with such great success. The N. Y. Sun says: "It records the features of great men in a satisfactory manner." The Albany Press calls it an "extremely thoughtful and suggestive volume." The Chicago Tribune reports it to be "a pleasant volume of bits and odds and ends of gossip and information about authors, musicians and painters, such as we all delight in, for curiosity about the great ones of the earth is not to be denied."

THE PETERKIN PAPERS. Lucretia P. Hale's inimitable and amusing stories of Agamemnon, Solomon John and Lady from Philadelphia, have just been brought out in a handsome new quarto edition on fine calendered paper, and crowded with quaint pictures. ($1.50.)

CHRISTIAN SYMBOLS AND STORIES OF THE SAINTS, by Clara Erskine Clement and Katherine E. Conway, is a large and richly illustrated handbook, which has been highly endorsed by eminent prelates in Europe and America. "Full of instruction and wisdom," says a Benedictine Abbot. "Not only attractive and interesting in itself, but containing particularly valuable information," says an Ursuline Abbe. "A literary biographical and chronological treasure," says a nun of the Visitation.
