

ARTICLE VII

1. Subject to the requirement that, under like circumstances and conditions, there shall be no arbitrary discrimination by either country against the other country in favour of any other foreign country, and without prejudice to the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article VI, the provisions of this Agreement shall not extend to prohibitions or restrictions:

- a) relating to public security;
- b) imposed for the protection of public health or on moral or humanitarian grounds;
- c) imposed for the protection of plants or animals, including measures for protection against disease, degeneration or extinction as well as measures taken against harmful seeds, plants or animals;
- d) relating to prison-made goods;
- e) relating to the enforcement of police or revenue laws and regulations; or
- f) imposed for the protection of national treasures of artistic, historic or archaeological value.

2. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent the adoption or enforcement of such measures as the Government of either country may see fit to adopt:

- a) relating to the importation or exportation of gold or silver; or
- b) relating to the control of the import or export or sale for export of arms, ammunition, or implements of war, and, in exceptional circumstances, all other military supplies.

3. It is understood that the provisions of this Agreement relating to laws and regulations affecting the sale, taxation or use of imported articles within Canada and Brazil are subject to the constitutional limitations on the authority of the Governments of the respective countries.

ARTICLE VIII

The advantages now accorded, or which may hereafter be accorded, by either country to adjacent countries in order to facilitate frontier traffic and advantages resulting from a customs union to which either country may become a party shall be excepted from the operation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

The advantages now accorded, or which may hereafter be accorded, by Canada exclusively to other territories under the sovereignty of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, or under His Majesty's suzerainty, protection or mandate, shall be excepted from the operation of this Agreement. The advantages now accorded, or which may hereafter be accorded, by Brazil exclusively to contiguous countries shall likewise be excepted from the operation of this Agreement.
