

inform the Embassy that the person has permission to accept employment, subject to the applicable regulations of the receiving State.

5. Permission to take up employment will be deemed to be terminated without prior notification upon the termination of the assignment of the employee in Canada or in Finland, as the case may be. Employment taken up in accordance with the terms of this Agreement will not entitle dependents to continue to reside in Canada or in Finland nor will it entitle the said dependents to remain in such employment or to enter into other employment in Canada or in Finland after permission has been terminated.
6. For dependents who obtain employment under this Agreement and who have immunity from the jurisdiction of the receiving State in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations or any other applicable international agreement, immunity from civil and administrative jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising out of such employment is hereby irrevocably waived by the sending State.
7. In the event that a dependent who has immunity from criminal jurisdiction in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations is accused of a criminal offence committed in relation to his or her employment, the sending State will give serious consideration to any written request for a waiver of immunity that may be submitted by the receiving State.
8. Dependents obtaining employment under this Agreement shall pay income tax and any social security deductions levied by the receiving State on any remuneration arising from such employment.
