Training

Based on completion of user documentation training packages and facilities, user training is conducted.

Conversion

Historical data can be recorded via automated routines or direct data capture.

Production

System production files are opened and start-up data (coding dictionaries, security logs and initial budget records) is recorded by MFS and MFR. Regular transaction input can then begin.

4.2.3   Summary Schedule

The following diagram provides a summary of the implementation schedule.