"ANNEX "A"

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

- 1. Unless indicated otherwise in subsidiary arrangements, the Government of Canada shall finance all or part of the following expenditures, based on the rates authorized in its own regulations:
 - a) Expenditures related to award holders, training and technical missions, including:
 - i) enrolment and tuition fees, tutoring fees, books, supplies or material required;
 - ii) a living allowance;
 - iii) medical and hospital expenses;
 - iv) travel expenses (economy-class fares for travel by airplane or any other approved means of transportation), in compliance with the requirements of the scholarship program.
 - b) Expenditures related to Canadian personnel, including:
 - i) salaries, fees, allowances and other benefits;
 - ii) travel expenses for Canadian personnel and their dependants between their usual place of residence and the port of entry and exit in Morocco;
 - iii) transportation costs between the usual place of residence and the port of entry and exit in Morocco, for personal and household effects and those of dependants, as well as technical and special equipement required by personnel in performing their duties.
 - c) Expenditures related to certain projects, including:
 - i) the cost of engineering, administrative, architectural, consulting and other expert services required for the execution of projects;
 - ii) the cost of procuring equipment, material, supplies and other goods required, and transportation of same to the port of entry in Morocco.
- 2. Where the Government of Canada deems it necessary to obtain the services of a Canadian executing agency for a project, the Government of Canada shall finance expenditures related to the said executing agency.
- 3. Contracts for the purchase of the goods or the provision of services financed by the Government of Canada, and required for projects, shall be concluded by the Government of Canada or one of its agencies. However, a subsidiary arrangement may be made for the Government of the Kingdom of Morocco or one of its agencies to conclude such contracts itself in compliance with the conditions specified in the subsidiary arrangement.
- 4. The Government of Canada shall provide the Government of the Kingdom of Morocco, as soon as possible, with the names of members of the Canadian personnel and their dependants
