15. “Focused on its enemies, the Bush administration has forgotten its friends. Only one world region went entirely unmentioned in the State of the Union speech: Latin America. In another, far distant age—five days before terror struck New York and Washington—President Bush pledged a new alliance with President Fox of Mexico, on the grounds that a strong Mexico makes for a stronger United States. After 9/11, however, everything changed.” Mexican historian Enrique Krauze cited in Ibid., p. 3.
