Mr. Good, seconded by Mr. Brown, moved,—Whereas the special committee on Proportional Representation appointed at the last session of the last parliament reported in favour of the adoption of the alternative vote method of election in all single member constituencies when more than two candidates were running for election, and also found much merit in the system of true Proportional Representation;

And Whereas the last general election has fully demonstrated the many serious anomalies of the existing electoral system;

And Whereas this matter was debated at the last session of the present parliament but did not reach a vote;
