PRAYERS.

On motion of Mr. MacGuigan, seconded by Mr. Goode, the Second Report of the Special Committee on Statutory Instruments, presented to the House on Friday, February 14, 1969, was concurred in.

Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale), seconded by Mr. Olson, by leave of the House, introduced Bill C-171, An Act respecting the National Library, which was read the first time and ordered to be printed and ordered for a second reading at the next sitting of the House.

The text of the message and recommendation of His Excellency the Governor General printed pursuant to Standing Order 62(2) in relation to the foregoing Bill is as follows:

His Excellency the Governor General recommends to the House a Measure for the continuation of the National Library and for the appointment and remuneration of a National Librarian and an Associate National Librarian and such other officers and employees necessary for the proper conduct of the business of the Library; to provide also for the establishment of a National Library Advisory Board, for remuneration for attendance at meetings and for the payment of travelling and living expenses; and to provide further for establishment in the Consolidated Revenue Fund of a special account to which shall be credited all amounts appropriated by Parliament for the purpose of acquiring books for the Library and of a special account called the National Library Special Operating Account to which shall be credited all moneys received for the purpose of the Library by way of donations, bequest or otherwise, and that any amounts required for the purposes of the said measure may be paid out of the National Library Special Operating Account or out of any money appropriated by Parliament for such purposes.
