Mr. Speaker: I declare the motion lost. Before leaving the chair I think it is my duty to remind hon. members that it is long established practice for hon. members to come into the chamber wearing a jacket, shirt and tie. I am not prepared to encourage hon. members to depart from that practice. I would seek their co-operation in this respect.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. MacInnis: On that point, Mr. Speaker, I would think it appropriate to mention that all members on this side of the House are properly dressed, and the bad example is being set by government members.

At 10.19 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
