SALES TAX IN PUBLISHING INDUSTRY

Question No. 4,749—Mr. Herbert:

1. In 1982, what was the amount of the tax expenditure in sales tax foregone in the publishing industry?

2. What percentage of publications sold in Canada are considered to be foreign?

Mr. David Smith (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): I am informed by the Department of Finance and Statistics Canada as follows:

1. Sales tax revenues foregone by the exemptions in the Excise Tax Act for newspapers, magazines, and books is in the range of $260 million per annum.

2. Information for the year 1982 is not yet available, however for the year 1981, in terms of dollar value, 73.7 per cent of all books sold in Canada were imports.
