Dear Mr. Morgan,

Your portrait looking at me from the Mc Gill Daily reminds me very much of Sir Arthur Currie. I knew him slightly. To you, his successor, I want to bid welcome to Canada and God-speed in your work.

I'm writing because of that and also because you are a friend of Philip Priestman of Hull, who passed through here a year or two ago. He then saw his brother, David, whose wife (nee Cotsworth) leaves next week to spend the winter with the Priestmans at Hull. Mr. and Mrs. David are among our oldest friends out here.

Then, too, I have a son, David B. Savage, who is in third year Arts at Mc Gill, aims to be a newspaperman -as I was- and appears to be strong on economics.

I hope some day I may have the pleasure of meeting you in Montreal or out here. Meantime, I wish you the best of good luck

Yours sincerely

Hugh Savage
