

INDIA.

"I make Christ my heir."—Schwartz, who willed all his property for missions to the heathen.

"I am now dead to Europe and alive to India."—Dr. Coke, 1813.

"If ever I see a Hindu converted to Jesus Christ, I shall see something more nearly approaching the resurrection of a dead body than anything I have yet seen."—Henry Martyn. To-day there are 222,000 native communicants in India.

Judson laboured for six years in Burmah without a single convert. When it was hinted to him that the mission was a total failure, a seraphic glory lighted up his countenance as he exclaimed: "The conversion of Burmah is as bright as the promises of God." There are now over 29,000 communicants.

"You are the only people arriving here who do not come to squeeze my people."—King of Siam, to the missionaries.

"We are indebted more to William Carey and the £13 2s. 6d., which was the first sum subscribed for him, than we are to all the heroism and cunning of Clive, and to all the genius and rapacity of Warren Hastings."—Canon Farrar.

"Christ, not the British Government, rules India. Our hearts have been conquered not by your armies, gleaming bayonets, and fiery cannon, but by a higher and a different power. No one but Christ has deserved the precious diadem of the Indian crown, and He will have it."—Keshub Chunder Sen.

CHINA.

"O rock! rock! when wilt thou open?"—Xavier, 1552. Opened, 1842.

"It is a great step towards the Christianization of our planet, if Christianity gain entrance into China."—Neander, in 1850, a week before his death. Christianity tolerated in China by the Treaty of Tientsin, 1858.

"When China is moved, it will change the face of the globe."—Napoleon.

"The devil invented the Chinese language to keep the Gospel out of China."—Reported saying of Rev. John Wesley.

"In China the sense of truth is not only almost unknown, but is not even admired."—Rev. F. Horton.

"The only real interpreter of the thought and progress of the west to the millions of China is the missionary."—London Times.
