

and Attendant at the battle of Durham in 1546.

He married Jenet, daughter of Sir William Keith. Sir John, his eldest son and successor, married Janet, daughter of Lord Dalkeith.

Lord James, his heir and only son was sent into England as a hostage for the payment of 40,000 marks. He married Janet, daughter of Sir Alex Livingston of Calender, and had four sons. The eldest and successor, Lord James II., was a man of remarkable ability; was a Privy Counsellor in 1440. He married by consent of Parliament the sister of King James in 1474. He left one son, James, and one daughter, who afterwards became the great-grand-mother of Mary Queen
