

Of this amount $125,622 18 was for the support of their immense institution, the Blocksley Alms House. In this establishment in 1818-49, there were received 4,058 foreigners and 2,268 Americans. In 1849-50, there were received 6,747 persons; say 4,325 foreigners and 2,422 Americans.

In Baltimore City and County Alms House, 845 foreigners were received in 1850:— and 765 natives. There were besides 600 when the year began. The State of Maryland having no general pauper law, the smaller counties appear to send their poor quite generally to Baltimore to be supported at the expense of that City and County.

The net charge to the City in 1850, for these, and out-door expenses was

And to the County

$20,997 46

5,523 63

$26,521 09

These items of expense assist us in making out some estimate of the number of foreign paupers receiving public relief in 1850. They are drawn from the few reports of Officers of the Poor which have been printed. Making up the account for the number of persons relieved, it stands thus:—

Boston — Foreigners relieved,	6,144
Other parts of Massachusetts,	6,190
Foreign pauper Lunatics,	169
MASSACHUSETTS,		12,503
New York City —
Foreigners relieved by Emigration Commission, Hospital and Asylum,	13,885
By lodging, forwarding, &c.,	14,368
By Board of 10 Governors,	33,038
Other parts of New York —
Foreigners relieved by Emigration Commission,	5,937
Foreigners relieved by County officers; say	10,000
NEW YORK STATE,		77,228
Philadelphia : City and Districts, [from May '49 to May '50.]
Foreigners — Alms House,	4,325
Out door relief; say	21,000
		28,325
Baltimore : City and County —
Foreigners — Alms House, about	1,150
Out door relief, about	$2,000
Lunatics,	$2,974
German and Hibernian Societies	$192 say	2,000
		3,150
		121,206

Deficient as these statements are, they give a nearer approach to the number of foreign paupers relieved in the Atlantic States, than you would at first suppose.

The reports from which I have compiled them embrace, it is true, only the States of Massachusetts and New York,