

PART OF NORTH AMERICA

Reduced copy of Map prepared by Stanford's Geographical Establishment in 1884 for the Ontario Government, and used on the argument of the Boundary Case. Corrected by James White, F.R.G.S., Dominion Geographer.

Area of Ontario according to the contentions of the Dominion and Manitoba	110,782 sq. miles.
Additional territory covered by the Award and the Privy Council Judgment	144,000 "
Present Area of Ontario	254,782 "

PRESENT BOUNDARY OF ONTARIO

Boundary of Ontario according to contentions of Dominion and Manitoba.
Boundary of Manitoba according to Dominion Act of 1881, as interpreted by the Dominion and Manitoba.

110,782 sq. miles.
144,000 "
254,782 "