

York County and Suburbs of Toronto

ODOR STARS AGAIN ON MORLEY AVENUE

Residents Determined That Something Must Be Done at Once.

BIG MEETING TONIGHT

Storekeepers in the District Have Lost Business—Some of the Effects.

The arrival of spring and the prospect of balmy summer days is not an unalloyed delight for citizens in the east end within smelling distance of the sewage disposal plant on Morley avenue. With the twitter of the birds came the first stinging gusts of odor, and the east enders are militant. As they say: "It's just April now. What will it be when the hot weather comes?"

They have no intention of waiting to see what it will be like then. The executive of the East End Ratepayers' Association will meet in St. John's Parish House, Norway, tonight to discuss the matter and decide upon some course of action, and all interested are invited to attend.

Dreadful Memory.

"When I think of what we put up with last summer from that sewage plant," said President Bullock to The World last night, "it makes me very determined that nothing will be left undone this year by our association to have the nuisance done away with. If the thing isn't working right, then let us have something that will work right."

Another source of odors that the association will deal with is Small's Pond. Although it was completely drained recently, it is claimed that the bed of the pond is covered with filth and decomposing rubbish. Residents are afraid that it will be a nuisance when the water comes, and they want it cleaned out.

Some of the Effects.

The Waddell report which visited the Morley avenue district yesterday was told of the effects of the obnoxious odor by a large number of incensed property owners and others living within smelling distance of the disposal plant. Each one had a terrible tale to tell of the way the stench affected their health, property, goods, etc.

Mrs. Young, who is the owner of an ice cream parlor in vicinity of the plant, said that her business suffered last summer thru the awful smell. "People would come in here to eat ice cream, but when I served it to you think they could eat it? No. They would have to get up without touching the ice cream. It is in my business that the effects are felt, perhaps more than any other," she said.

"In the ordinary course of events my shop door would always be open in the summer, but this year I had to keep it closed. The odor pervades the whole house, and who wants to buy candles, ice cream or cakes with such an abominable smell permeating the whole atmosphere?"

Doctors' Advice.

The lady who told her two doctors to get out of the district if the smell continued, as she would be unable to stand it another summer. "Why, one day last summer it effected me so badly that I fell down in shop floors, and yet without a pain in my body," she exclaimed.

J. Hall, a grocer who operates the plant, said that life was unbearable during the summer, and at every opportunity he and every other resident in the vicinity, jumped on the first car and got away out to Scarborough. The east end other suburb where the stench was minus.

Smell Back Again.

"And the smell is returning," he said. "The two or three warm days we had and lately have brought it back with all its force and a little extra, as there is all last winter's accumulation of dirt down there" (indicating with his finger the dumping grounds). He emphatically stated that he had lost fully 75 per cent of his trade since the east end curse commenced.

"I can't put any of my fresh stuff outside the store, I would be afraid of the results."

People Made Sick.

J. Carlton referred to the actions of people on the streets and in the street cars. "It is a common occurrence to see people vomiting on the street," he said, "and just as a street car comes into the street, up go handkerchiefs to wipe noses and grooves of disgust issue from underneath the handkerchiefs."

Several residents testified as to the depreciation in value of the properties within smelling distance. "Practically everybody would like to sell out if they could, and escape the torture, but people absolutely refuse to dicker over any figure," said another wrathful ratepayer.

How I Rubbed Away About 14 Pounds of Fat From My Hips and Abdomen In Two Weeks' Time

For years I strained my corsets trying to hide the rolls of fat on my hips and abdomen; it seemed as if it had accumulated on just the two places that I most wanted to be thin. Everything that I tried failed to take off the horrible fat where it showed. But thanks to a lady friend who had studied herbertonics, I learned the secret in a harmless plan which enabled me to rub away with ease about 14 pounds of useless fat in only two weeks.

This plan is so simple, and some of my friends seem to know it. I think there may be sister readers of The World who have perhaps been longing for this very advice. First get from any good druggist 1 dram of quassa chips, and a 3-ounce bottle of Armonia. Take the time you save by putting the quassa chips in a pan, pour over it three small cups of boiling water. When it has stood for about half a minute, strain through a cloth and add the Armonia. Then pour the mixture into a bottle and apply it every night and morning with your hands for about ten minutes, using a circular movement. Each time you can get a new piece of the fat melt away. At first I thought it was a dream, but when I measured there was no longer any doubt. I soon grew too slender for my clothes, and had to have them taken in, but it was a pleasure to do it. I feel eternally grateful to the lady who showed me how easy it was to gain my youthful figure.

NOTE:—The above prescription is not a new one by any means, though not so widely known as it should be. Herbessey Drug Store, 117 Yonge street. The Ligarettes Drug Store, 106 Yonge street, and 224 Yonge street, and Moore's Limited, 389 Yonge street, all state that they fill this prescription very frequently. Some remarkable reductions in weight have been reported from its use, and the mixture is entirely harmless.

WELL DIGGING IN EARLS COURT

Thomas Glensworth and his assistant, William Whitehouse, who have orders for the digging of a number of wells in the Earls Court and Fairbank districts. Glensworth claims that the well water in and around this locality is the best and purest in all the County of York.

BUILDING BOOM IN WARD SEVEN

Thirty-Five Permits Issued in Fifteen Days During March.

APRIL MORE PROMISING

Death of James I. Halliday, West Toronto Poultry Dealer.

As expected earlier in the year, the building business in ward seven has begun to show a decided increase, and the first half of the April is already in advance of previous years. During the fifteen days of the month, just elapsed, thirty-five permits were issued for work on buildings whose aggregate cost will amount to $89,775. This list includes 21 new buildings, a number of smaller tenements and a number of alterations in West Toronto.

Golden Star L. O. L. At the regular monthly meeting in St. James' Hall of Golden Star L. O. L., No. 300, a fraternal visit was paid then by Parkdale L. O. L., the worshipful master, of which occupied the evening and which, exemplified the first degree. The work was put on in a very able manner by the visitors, including the form of ritual. During the evening an address was delivered on the situation in Ontario by John Robinson, editor of The Telegram, and a banquet prepared by T. Broder Romley, U. M. of No. 300 closed the meeting.

Funeral Service. The funeral service of the late John L. Benrose, of 122 Western avenue, was held last night at his late residence, and the remains were sent to Bradford, Ont., where the funeral will be held at Mount Pleasant Cemetery tomorrow. The late Mr. Benrose was in good health when he left for Kingston Good Friday, and until Monday night, when he died, he felt as well as usual. Death was due to heart failure. He is survived by a widow, two sons and two daughters.

Fraternal Visit. Toronto Junction Council, Royal Templars of Temperance, will pay their annual fraternal visit to New Era Council at Dovercourt road and Queen street tonight. The local lodge will provide the entertainment for the evening.

Local Lodge Will Provide Entertainment for the evening. The death occurred yesterday afternoon of James Irwin Halliday in his 32nd year. Deceased was a well-known poultry dealer in West Toronto. Interment takes place tomorrow.

Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association. The ratepayers' Association of the ward seven district met last night at the residence of the controller, O. McCarty, on Thursday evening at Annette Street School. Subject: "Transportation." A lively discussion followed, and many pointed questions will be asked.

N. TORONTO RATEPAYERS ARRANGE BIG MEETING. Want More Information Regarding the New Sewerage System.

There will be a big meeting under the auspices of the Ratepayers' Association in the old town hall, North Toronto, on Saturday night. The executive met last night to map out a program and decided to write Mr. Worthington of the works department to further explain the new sewerage system.

From information gathered in the district, the residents are not opposed to the new system, but simply want to be fully informed as to its design and scope.

The executive also discussed the ideal plan of the district, which has been prepared, showing the best arrangement of streets and suitable locations for parks, etc. This will be on view at the meeting and will be one of the subjects of discussion.

Fire Hall Entrance. Miss Edith Williams, the owner of the lot in the rear of Davieville avenue fire hall, has offered the city that piece of property for $400, which has been acquired. It will provide an entrance to the fire hall from Balliol street.

The action of the city authorities in dumping stone near the new city yard next to the Bedford Park Anglican Church, is being resented by the parishioners of the church, as they claim that the stone is lying on part of their property. An action will be taken to have it stopped.

Little William Parker, the fourteen-month-old baby, who was seriously burned while playing with one fire at his home, 62 Roselawn avenue, last week died at the Coronado Private Hospital on Wednesday. He was severely injured when he fell into a fire which had been started by the boy. Little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Only One "BROMO QUININE." To get the genuine, call for full name, LAKATIVE BROMO QUININE. Look for signature of E. W. GROVE. Cures a Cold in One Day. 25c. 4-1

HIGH-CLASS STOCK SALE AT WHITBY

Sir Henry Pellatt's Meadow Brook Farm Herd Sold by Auction.

SEVENTY-FIVE ANIMALS

Charles Grimsley, Eglinton, Bought Some Fine Cattle.

Sir Henry Pellatt's Meadow Brook Farm herd was sold by auction yesterday. There were seventy-five animals, all either shorthorns or Holsteins of exceptional quality and only two remained unsold at the conclusion of the sale.

There were 124 Holsteins averaging in price $153.50, aggregating $38,825.25. The head of the shorthorn herd, a seven-year-old, imported bull, was sold to R. M. Forbes of Montrose for $350.

A Big Buyer. The highest shorthorn cow brought $250; the buyer being C. Grimsley, of Eglinton. The best of the Holsteins was bought by Mr. Grimsley, a really fine animal. Charles Grimsley was a big purchaser of Holsteins and shorthorns. His total expenditure amounted to $32,290.

EAST TORONTO

Aldermen W. W. Hitts and W. D. Robbins, the representatives of ward one, will be present at the next meeting of the East Toronto Ratepayers' Association, which will be held on the 21st April. It is expected that both of the aldermen will have some important statements to make in connection with the work which is to be started in the ward this spring, more particularly in East Toronto.

Harvey C. Moore has sold his residence at the corner of Gerrard street and Norwood road, which he has occupied for over twenty years, to Harry Halls. The sale price is stated to be $9,500. Mr. Halls has now begun the erection of a pair of two-family houses on the rear of the lot, with frontage on Norwood road. Each of the buildings is of solid brick with frontages of twenty-five feet. They will be let in four roomed suites. As many as thirty other two-family houses have been erected in this locality during the past year.

ST. ANDREW'S TOMORROW.

The report submitted by the wardens of St. Andrew's Church, Tomorden, at the vestry meeting last night was very satisfactory. The receipts for the past year in the church account, which provides for the clergymen's salary, being $366.16. The expenditure was $687.02 and receipts in the hall account, out of which all other expenses are paid, including the sexton's salary, amounted to $214.53 and the expenditure, $213.24.

Mr. McMahon and E. G. Smith were appointed rectors and people's wardens respectively. Fred Hazelton, vestry clerk, and Mr. Gudgeon, ex-delegate to the synod.

The rector of the parish, the Rev. E. E. Powell, who presided at the meeting, which separation question now before the congregation, stated that the bishop had suggested that the members of the congregation should pledge themselves individually to amounts which would make the salary of the priest in charge $800, which he is to receive in the next year. This is a condition made by the bishop before he will grant his approval for the separation of the church from the parish of Chester.

LAMBTON MILLS

At a meeting of the executive of the Lambton Mills Ratepayers' Association a list of rules was drafted and the secretary, Mr. Hicks and the vice-president, Mr. Adams, will present them to the members at the next meeting of the association on Tuesday.

FAIRBANK PASTOR'S WORK TRULY LABOR OF LOVE

The parishioners of St. Hilda's Church, Fairbank, recognize the many difficulties that their pastor, Rev. H. R. Young, has to contend with in his work in connection with the church, and it is to his untiring efforts that the congregation owes the new basement hall is largely due.

Considering the extent of the parish and the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a deep regard for their pastor. That he is not actuated in his work by any other spirit than the welfare of the parish, is evidenced by the fact that the amount of work undertaken, the secretary, Mr. Hicks, is a little wonder that the congregation entertain a