

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

WEDNESDAY, January 28, 1914.

Ordered, That the following members do compose the Select Standing Committee on Forests, Waterways and Water-powers:

Messrs. Ames, Barrette, Béland, Bellemare, Blain, Bourassa, Bowman, Brabazon, Champagne, Charlton, Cochrane, Coderre, Cromwell, Cruise, Davidson, Ethier, Green, Henderson, McKay, Michaud, Munson, Osler (Sir Edmund), Perley, Richards, Rogers, Stewart (Hamilton), Thoburn, Warnock, Webster, White (Victoria, Alta.), Wilson (Laval), and Wright.

Ordered, That the said committee be empowered to examine and inquire into all such matters and things as may be referred to it by the House; and report from time to time its observations and opinions thereon; with power to send for persons, papers and records.

Attest.

THOS. B. FLINT,

Clerk of the House.

The Select Standing Committee on Forests, Waterways and Water-powers beg leave to present the following as their REPORT.

Your committee, during the present session examined Honourable Sir Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, and Mr. H. R. MacMillan, Chief Forester of the Provincial Government of British Columbia, and beg to submit herewith, for the information of the House, the minutes of their proceedings, together with the evidence taken by them.

Your committee recommend that their proceedings and such evidence be printed in pamphlet form and that 500 copies be set aside for the use of the committee, and that rule 74 be suspended in reference thereto.

(Report concurred in by the House on June 9, 1914.)
