St. Michael's Altar Society.

April 7th, the first Sunday of the month, the members of St. Michael's Altar Society held their monthly meeting in St. John's Chapel. This meeting was particularly interesting, it being the beginning of a new year and consequently the new officers were duly installed after a hearty vote of thanks, proposed by Rev. Father Ryan and unanimously carried, had been presented to the retiring President, Mrs. E. O'Keefe, who has held that very important position since the inauguration of the society. Words are inadequate to express the gratitude to this generous and spiritual lady, whose indefatigable zeal and untiring energies have done so much towards leaving the society in a most flourishing condition. The other officers being re-elected was a vote of thanks in itself. The Council for the ensuing year consists of President Miss Foy, of whom it is needless to speak, for her inestimable qualities are only too well known. The society is to be congratulated in appointing such a worthy successor. Vice-President Mrs. McConnell, whose past record is sufficient proof of her efficient qualities. Treasurer Miss Sullivan; the looks of this young lady show the great care and deep interest that has been shown by her in all that concerns the financial success of the society. Secretary Miss Kingsley, Assistant Secretary Miss Herson, both of whom have been very faithful in the discharge of their duties. Last, and because greatest, last, Rev. Father Ryan, Spiritual Director, whose kind and genial manners endear him to all beyond powers of expression. With a director so gifted and exemplary, whose untiring labors can never be repaid, assisted by so efficient a Council, the Altar Society will no doubt continue to do the good and noble work that it has done in the past. COM.

As soon as a youth begins to fancy that he knows it all he should be started off to school.

"Oh, mamma," said the small boy from the city when he first saw a robin, "come look at this little sparrow with a red flannel shirt on."

Aspirations are excellent things, when—not cut too large.

Joys are little islands—soon skirted—that we touch on the voyage: sorrow the sea we sail on.

If you intend to be happy don't be foolish enough to wait for a just cause.

If time wasn't money, how could people take it to pay visits?

A Month He Loved.—"There's nothing more beautiful than the month of April," she sighed tenderly. "I wish that it could last forever."
