

Places of Public Interest and Public Buildings in Toronto

Toronto Exhibition, Crystal Palace and Grounds.
Lieut.-Governor's Residence, cor. King and Simcoe Sts.
Queen's Park, head of College Ave.
Parliament Buildings, Queen's Park.
University Buildings, Queen's Park.
School of Science and Observatory, Queen's Park.
Victoria University, Queen's Park.
McMaster Hall, Queen's Park.
Observatory, Queen's Park.
New City Hall and Court House, at head of Bay St.
Ontario Veterinary College, Temperance St.
Foresters' Temple, Bay St.
Provincial Lunatic Asylum, Queen St. W.
Stanley Barracks and Fort.
Osgoode Hall, Queen St. W.
High Park, west of the City.
Water Works Reservoir and Park, Yonge St.
Horticultural Gardens, Gerrard and Sherbourne Sts.
Normal School, Museum, etc., Gough St.
St. James' Cathedral (Episcopal), King St. East.
St. Michael's Cathedral (Catholic).
Metropolitan Church (Methodist), Queen St. E.
Baptist Church, cor. Gerrard and Jarvis Sts.
Art Gallery, Main Building, Exhibition Grounds.
Post Office, Adelaide St. E.
Central Prison, Strachan Ave.
Knox College, Spadina Ave.
Trinity University, Queen St. W.
Upper Canada College, head of Avenue Road.
General Hospital, Gerrard St. E.
Children's Hospital, College St.
Public Library, cor. Church and Adelaide Sts.
Grand Opera House, Adelaide St. W.
Princess Theatre, King St. W.
Toronto Opera House, Adelaide St. W.
Shea's Theatre, Yonge St.
Massey Music Hall, Shuter St.
Riversdale Park.
Hawk's Point and the Island Park (by Ferry).
The City Fire Hall (open to visitors).
Custom House, foot of Yonge St.
Y. C. M. A. Rooms, cor. Yonge and McGill Sts.
View of the City from the Tower of the Canada Life
Building, King St. W. (free to visitors).
Confederation Life Building, Yonge St.
Mount Pleasant, St. James' and Necropolis Cemeteries.

Note.—Trolley cars run every day (Sunday included) to every part of the city. Several trolley-bus coaches also make regular trips of observation for the benefit of visitors.