

particulars of which see advertisement. On arriving at Winnipeg, application should be made to the Dominion Government Immigration Officer, in charge at the building, who will supply all information for the future guidance of the immigrant, best locations, &c. By this latter favorite route, every variety of scenery will be met with,—now rugged, bold, and imposing; now lovely, beautiful and picturesque, giving pleasure and gratification to the eye of the artist and lover of Nature's grandeur. The peculiar properties of the air impart a softened brilliancy to the landscape, similar to what is seen under the skies of Italy. Clothed in the garments of summer, and lighted by the gorgeous tints of its sunshine, nothing could surpass its scenery.

---

---

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-Four, by THOMAS SPENCE, in the Office of the Minister of Agriculture.

---

---