

87—Babbine Chief.

2' 6" x 2' 1"

p. 241. Chief of the Chimpseyan or Babbine Indians. Given as Frontispiece in Sir D. Wilson's "Prehistoric Man."

88—A Babbine or Big-lip Woman.

2' 6" x 2' 1"

p. 241. The size of the underlip constitutes the standard of female beauty and it is enlarged by a flat piece of wood three inches long and an inch and a half wide.

89—Chea-clach.2' 6" x 2' 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ "

p. 211. Head chief of the Clal-lums at Esquimalt (Fort Victoria.)

90—The Esquimalt.

1' 6" x 2' 5"

p. 208. Fort Victoria on Vancouver's Island, showing the Village of the Clal-lums.

91—Return of a War Party.

1' 6" x 2' 5"

With Scalps, in the War Canoes. Fort Victoria appears on the right; part of Indian Village on the left.